Canada
VISA ADVICE FROM THE HIGH COMMISSION OF CANADA
People interested in travelling to Canada have been deceived by so-called expert agents who charge a fee in return for facilitating a visa. Before paying any fee or agreeing to a financial obligation, it is advisable to know the facts:
1) Only the High Commission's designated staff can authorize a Canadian visa. Paying a fee to an agent, being promised a job in Canada, or taking job training is no guarantee that a visa application will be approved.
2) Applicants for Canadian visas do not need to employ an agent but if they do, they should first ensure that the individual is licensed as a qualified Canadian Immigration Consultant. All such consultants are listed on the official website of the Canadian Society of Immigration Consultants (www.csis-scci.ca).
3) Complete information on Canada's visa policy and procedures can be found by following the links at www.bangladesh.gc.ca or www.cic.gc.ca. If necessary, further information can be obtained at the inquiries counter of the Canadian High Commission in Dhaka.
NO ONE SHOULD PROMISE YOU A CANADIAN VISA!
