Outlaw arrested

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Kushtia

Rapid Action Battalion (Rab) in Chuadanga arrested a member of an outlawed party and recovered two bombs from him on Tuesday evening. The outlaw was identified as Masud Rana, 22, a cadre of outlawed Purbo Banglar Communist Party (PBCP) faction Lal Pataka. Acting on a tip off that Rana was carrying bombs in his motorbike, a team of Rab-6 stopped him at Zafarpur intersection in Chuadanga town at about 7.30pm and recovered two bombs from a polythene bag kept under the seat cover of the bike. Following confessional statement of Rana, Rab raided several places in Chuadanga town but failed to arrest his accomplices. Rana was handed over to Chuadanga Sadar police yesterday noon.

BAT helps farmers

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Lalmonirhat

British American Tobacco (BAT) distributed personal protective equipment (PPE) among 200 farmers for free at its district office at Sarpukur village of Aditmari upazila yesterday. Wearing PPE, farmers can keep themselves safe from the bad impact of insecticides at the time of using those in their field. BAT, Rangpur regional officer Belayet Ahsan said, poor farmers in the district cannot purchase personal protective equipment from the market. So the British America Tobacco has arranged the PPE free of cost for them. Now the farmers can protect themselves fully from the harmful effects of insecticide, he added.

Winners of the scholarship worth Tk 10.08 lakh, are higher secondary students under-graduates from different colleges and universities of eight districts under the division. The scholarships are given in two categories since 2006. In the under-graduate category, 24 students to get total scholarship money of Tk 24,000 every year for four years till completion of his/her graduation while each of the 72 higher secondary scholarship winners will receive Tk 6,000 every year for two years. Rajshahi mayor AHM Khairuzzaman Lition distributed the scholarships as chief guest while KP Munshi, Indian assistant high commissioner presided the function. The mayor thanked the Indian government for the initiative and said it would boost friendship between the two countries.

75 hurt in pre-election clashes in Patuakhali

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Patuakhali

At least 75 people were injured in clashes between the supporters of rival chairman candidates in three upazilas of the district on Tuesday night.

Of them, 35 people were injured in Kalaikapur Union under Patuakhali Sadar upazila, 30 in Noulmala Union under Baufal upazila, and the rest 10 in Agnaria Union under Dumki upazila.

In Sadar upazila, supporters of two chairman candidates—Wazed Gazi and Tanvir Ahmed—locked in a clash over election campaign at Srikkhali village under Kalaikapur Union at around 8:00pm. At least 35 people from both sides were injured during the clash that continued for half an hour.

Of the injured Abdul Qader Howlader, 50, Hafez Mridha, 85, Nuru Majhi, 62, Malek Mollah, 58, and Nazrul, 30, were admitted to Patuakhali General Hospital while the rest given first aid. Injured Qader was shifted to Barisal Sher-e-Bangla Medical College and Hospital at around 11:00pm as his condition deteriorated.

In Baufal upazila, at least 30 people were injured as supporters of Shahjada Howlader and advocate Kamal Biswas, two chairman candidates in the upcoming election to Noulmala Union Parishad, clashed at a village near Bhanga Bridge at around 10:00pm.

Shahjada Howlader claimed that the supporters of advocate Kamal Biswas beat up his younger brother Sourav, 15, and a supporter named Jala Kazi when they were wooing voters in the area at around 7:00pm.

"At least 100 Kamal Biswas' men later attacked my election camp and beat up 25 campaigners, leaving them seriously injured," he said.

Refuting the allegation, chairman aspirant Kamal Biswas, also a local Awami League leader, said the supporters of Shahjada swooped on his election office and assaulted at least seven of his supporters. They also ransacked union AL office, he claimed.

When contacted, the officer-in-charge of Baufal Police Station said they are taking necessary steps against the persons involved in Tuesday night's incident.

Campaigners of chairman candidates Sultan Ahmed and Golam Mortuza clashed in Agnaria Union under Dumki upazila at around 9:00pm on Tuesday, leaving at least ten people injured.

Of the injured, five are undergoing treatment to the upazila health complex. They are Abul Kalam Chowkider, 60, Bashir Uddin, 30, Hanif Chowkider, 35, Syed Rafiq, 26, Delwar, 28, and Zahid, 22. The rest five took first aid at the health complex.

Immediately after the incident, a mobile court, led by Upazila Nirbahi Officer (UNO) Md Asaduzzaman, went to the spot and arrested five people from there for alleged their involvement in the clash. The arrestees are Jasim Uddin, 30, Safiqul Islam, 25, Masud, 23, Zahidul Islam, 30 and Delwar Hossain, 28. Later, the UNO sentenced them to 15 days' imprisonment.

BCL activist held at RU for stabbing JCD man

RU CORRESPONDENT

Police on Tuesday night arrested an activist of Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL) Rajshahi University (RU) unit on charge of stabbing a Jatiyatabi Chhatra Dal (JCD) man on the campus on February 8.

The arrestee is Khalid Hasan alias Nayan, a fourth year student of management department of the university. Police said they picked up Nayan from Binopur area at around 11.00pm.

A group of BCL activists led by Nayan, Rocky and Abdus Salam stabbed Ahasanuzzaman, a third year management student on the campus on February 8.

Ahsan was admitted to Rajshahi Medical College and Hospital (RMCH) with injuries to his chest, stomach and left hand and later shifted to Dhaka. He is now undergoing treatment at Square Hospital.

Police said Nayan is also an accused in Nasirullah Nasim murder case.

Youth jailed for stalking, three others arrested

STAR NATIONAL DESK

Two youths were held for stalking, another for bid to abduct a girl in Laxmipur while one more was jailed for sexually harassing a housewife in Kushtia on Monday and the day before.

Two stalkers were arrested for sexually harassing two female students at Hasandi village in Sadar upazila of Laxmipur on Monday.

The arrestees were identified as Shamim, 20, son of late Ruhul Amin and Ariful Islam Sumon, 18, son of late Shamsul Islam of the village, reports UNB.

Police said the two stalkers used to tease class X student of Hasandi High School Mili Akhtar, 15, daughter of Mijanur Rahman, and class VII student Airin Akhtar, 12, daughter of Toslim Uddin of the same village on their way to school since long.

On Monday noon they entered the classrooms of Mili and Airin to woo them in presence of other students.

Hearing students' hue and cry, teachers rushed in and caught the stalkers and later handed them over to police.

Another young man was arrested while trying to abduct a female madrasa student at Mohadebpur village in Sadar upazila of the district on Sunday.

The arrestee was identified as Belal Hossain, 20, son of Sekandar Bepari of the village.

Police quoting local sources said Belal used to sexually harass Marjahan Akter, 15, daughter of Sharif Hossain and a class X student of local Enayetia Dakhil Madrassa on her way to madrassa since long.

On Sunday morning Belal tried to pick up Marjahan on a CNG-run auto-rickshaw while she was returning from her private tutor's house.

Hearing her cry for help, students and teachers of the madrassa rushed to the spot and caught Belal red-handed.

Later, he was handed over to police.

In Kushtia, a mobile court on Sunday afternoon sentenced a young man to 40 days' imprisonment for stalking a housewife.

Convict Mehedi Hasan, 20, is son of Tarachand of Poranpur in Damurhuda upazila in Chuadanga. Mehedi is a higher secondary (HSC) student, reports our Kushtia correspondent.

Court and victim's family sources said Mehedi used to tease a housewife for the last one year.

He also made an indecent proposal to the housewife sending her a vulgar picture through SMS in his mobile.

Several days ago, Mehedi also hung some obscene posters mentioning name of the housewife at different places of the area.

Family of the housewife with help of local people caught Mehedi on Sunday noon and handed him over to the police. Police produced him in the court the same day.

13 held while selling OMS rice on black market

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Gaibandha

Rapid Action Battalion (Rab) arrested 13 people while selling OMS (open market sale) rice on black market in Gobindagnaj upazila and recovered 550 sacks of rice from the spot on Monday.

Police said, on a tip-off, a contingent of Rab-5 raided the godown of Sujaul Faruk of Jheelpara in Gobindagnaj upazila and seized 550 sacks of government OMS rice from two trucks.

The elite force also arrested 13 people involved in selling the rice on black market.

The arrestees are Sujaul Faruk, Tofazzal Hossain, Moslem, Mostemuddin, Abdul Samad Bhutto, Badsha Mia, Jahidul Hoq, Jobber Ali, Niaz Morshed, Faridul Islam, Monower Hossain, Abdur Razzak and Abdus Samad.

The Rab team also recovered 576 empty government sealed OMS bags from the godown premises.

They later handed over the recovered rice and arrestees to police.

The accused repacked the OMS rice in normal bags for selling those on black market, said Siddiqur Rahman deputy assistant director of Rab-5. They have been doing it for a long time, he added.

Not only that, the arrestees also purchased food delivery order from food dealers and sold those on black market at high price, he further said.

A case was filed with Gobindaganj police station.
