

Storm lashes 5 villages in Thakurgaon

Woman killed as wall collapses on her in Natore

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Thakurgaon

Storm lashed at least five villages in Auliapur union in Thakurgaon Sadar upazila yesterday afternoon, damaging about 300 houses and uprooting a number of trees.

The storm, coupled with hailstorm, started at about 2:00pm and lasted about half an hour. It also damaged vast tract of maize and wheat fields, mango and litchi orchards and disrupted electricity in Sadar upazila.

Two people-- Dabirul Islam, 40, and Moyna, 13, of Vatapara village in the same union-- were injured as broken tree branches fell on them, Auliapur union parishad chairman Abdul Jalil said.

Most affected villages are Maderganj, Auliapur, Vadgaon, Kochubari and Shaslapeyala in Auliapur union.

Upazila nirbahi officer Touhidul Islam told this correspondent after visiting the storm-hit areas that he asked the local public representatives to prepare a list of affected families.

Deputy director of Department of Agriculture Extension (DAE) Foni Bhuson said they were making assessment of damaged crops.

In Natore, a woman was killed as a wall collapsed on her during storm at Diar Garfa village in Boraigram upazila on Sunday night, reports UNB.

The deceased was identified as Jainab Bibi, 55, wife of Shukur Ali of the village.

UP chairman Ataur Rahman said, Jainab Bibi was caught in the storm while retuning to her house at 10:00 pm from his son-in-law's house at Naraypur village.

As she took shelter at a mud house its wall collapsed on her, leaving her dead on the spot.

Hearing on charge framing against 57 mutineers starts

STAR NATIONAL DESK

Hearing on charge framing against 57 mutineers of 2 Battalion of Border Guard Bangladesh (BGB) began at the special court-13 in Dinajpur yesterday.

The court headed by Col Saleh Ahmed started trial proceedings at 10:00am. At the beginning, Major Qureshi read out the charges brought against the accused. Two other members of the court are Lt Col Mahfuzur Rahman and Major Masud, reports our correspondent.

Major Qureshi stated that the jawans revolted against their officers at the battalion headquarters on February 26 in 2009, looted firearms and ammunition from armoury and fired blank shots.

After his statement, the court started hearing on charge framing against the accused. All the accused were produced in the court. Of them, four confessed to their involvement in the mutiny at the battalion and begged for mercy while the rest claimed innocence.

Court sources said the hearing will continue until April 6. Deputy Attorney General Biswajit Roy was present.

Our Khagrachhari correspondent adds: Arguments between the prosecution witnesses and 71 accused in the case for mutiny at 30 Battalion will be held at the special court-15 today.

On completion of recording depositions of the witnesses, the court headed by Khagrachhari Sector Commander Col Abu Wahab Mohammad Hafizul Haque fixed the date. Two others member of the court are Lt Col Sayedis Sakline and Major AZM Golam Mostafa AL Mamun.

Of the accused, 11 confessed to their involvement in the mutiny at the battalion headquarters on February 26 in 2009 and begged for mercy while the rest claimed innocence.

Deputy Attorney General Farhad Ahmad and prosecutor Lt Col Md Zakir Hossain were present.

1) Activists of Islami Ain Bastabayan Sangstha, a body linked to a faction of Islami Oikya Jote led by Fazlul Huq Amine, read the holy Quran sitting on a road in Moulvibazar town, 2) block rail track at Brahmanbaria, 3) set a police van afire at Nagarkanda upazila headquarters in Faridpur, 4) battery-run auto-rickshaws plying the main road in Natore town during yesterday's hartal enforced by the organisation as part of its campaign against the government's newly announced national women policy.

Fratricide in Bogra

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Bogra

A youth was hacked to death allegedly by his elder brother at Sarotia village under Gabtoli upazila of the district early yesterday.

The deceased was identified as Pintu Mia, 25, son of Abdul Jalil of the village.

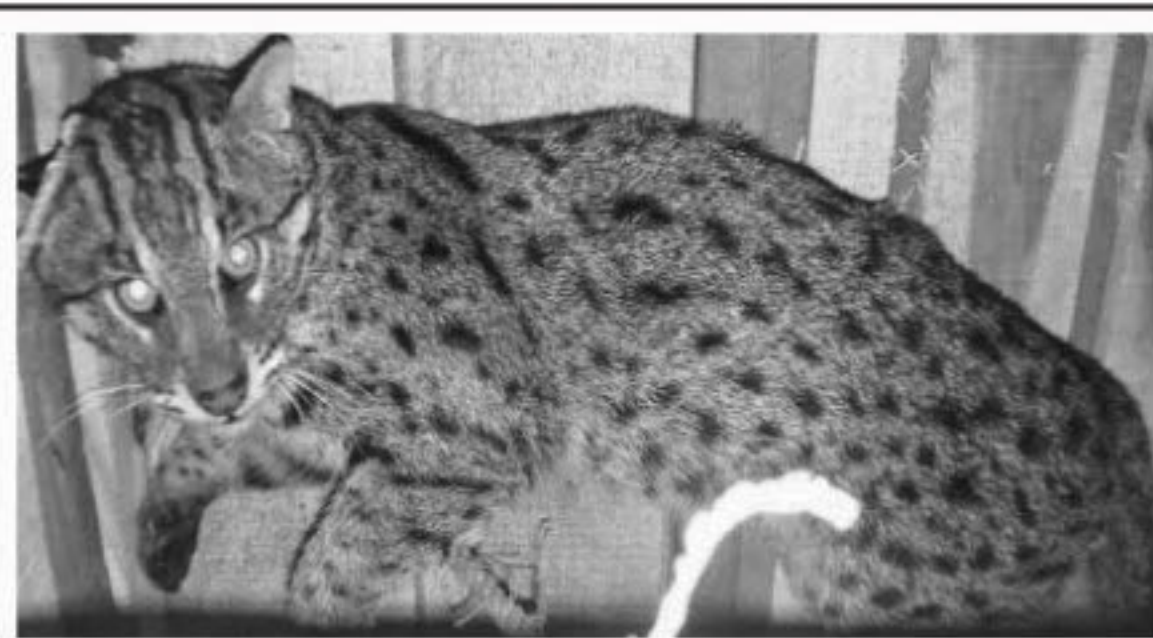

Police said, Shafiul Islam divorced his wife Shefaly Begum, 22, as she developed an extra-marital relation with Pintu, younger brother of her husband.

In February last Shefaly married Pintu and started to reside in Bogra town. About a week ago they returned home and were staying at the same house.

Yesterday, at around 2:00am, Shafiul entered his younger brother's room by cutting open the fence and hacked Pintu mercilessly with a sharp weapon, leaving him dead on the spot.

Officer-in-charge Abdur Rashid of Gabtoli police station said at least three other people including Shefaly and Pintu's mother were injured as they tried to resist Shafiul.

The injured were rushed to Bogra Shaheed Ziaur Rahman Medical College and Hospital.

People of Balati village in Kendua upazila of Netrakona district caught this fishing cat on February 13.

Another fishing cat's life in danger

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Netrakona

Panic gripped the people of Rajnagar, Titua, Nawapara, Roailbari, Amtola, Kailati, Roypur, Balati and Rajnagar villagers in Kendua upazila under Netrakona district as a fishing cat killed three cows and four goats during the last three days.

"As a fishing cat created panic in the area, I informed the upazila administration and police of the matter but no initiative has been taken in this regard," said local union parishad Chairman Toufiq Ahmad.

Kendua Police Station Officer in Charge Mosharaf Hossain said they are trying their best to catch the fishing cat with the help of villagers.

When contacted, Sheikh Touhidul Islam, assistant conservator of Mymensingh Divisional Forest Office, said they did not get any information about the fishing cat.

With sharp weapons in hand, a good number of villagers are trying to catch the animal.

Earlier on February 13, people of Balati village killed a fishing cat, caught another and handed it over to the forest office in Mymensingh.

Man jailed for rape of schoolgirl

Youth held on charge of kidnapping college girl

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Kishoreganj

A court here on Monday sentenced a man to rigorous imprisonment (RI) for three and a half years and fined Tk 5 thousand, in default, to suffer one month more in jail for violating a schoolgirl.

The convict was identified as Jahedul Islam alias Bachchu, 40, son of Abdul Mannan of Choura village in Nilphamari district.

According to prosecution, Bachchu violated an 8-year-old daughter of Azizur Rahman of Shait Pashimhati village in Nikli at a lonely place near her house on February 10, 2007.

Hearing the screams of the girl, locals rushed to the spot and rescued the girl and admitted her to local health complex. They also caught Bachchu and handed.

Father of the victim filed a case under Women and Children Repression Prevention Act with Nikli police station.

Rabiul Islam, additional district and sessions judge, handed down the verdict.

In Mymensingh, police arrested a youth on charge of kidnapping a college girl at Durgabari Road in the town on Sunday.

The arrestee was identified as Mriton Chakraborti, 24, student of Ananda Mohon College and son of Pradip Chakraborti of Kalibari road in the town, reports UNB.

Police said, Mritu Rani Saha, student of Mymensingh Commerce College and daughter of Borgi Chandra Sen, was going to college at about 9am when 7/8 youths waylaid her and then tried to kidnap her.

Hearing the cry for help, locals rushed in and caught one of the kidnappers, Mriton, along with a machete, a dagger and a knife while other accomplices managed to escape.

The youth was later handed over to police. The injured college girl was admitted to Mymensingh Medical College Hospital.

No clue yet to bomb attack on Meherpur councillors

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Kushtia

Police are yet to find any clue to the bomb attack on two municipal councillors in Meherpur on Friday night.

The councillors are Mizanur Rahman Ripon, 40, and Abdullah Bin Hashem, 44.

A case was filed with Meherpur Sadar police station in this connection. Abdul Halim, father of councillor Mizanur Rahman filed the case.

The accused in the case are president of Meherpur district Awami League (AL) Golam Rasul, general secretary Kazi Miajan Ali and general secretary of district unit Jubo League Abdullah Al Mamun Bipul.

Councillor Mizanur is also general secretary of municipality unit Jubo League.

Police picked up Abdullah Al Mamun Bipul on Friday night soon after the incident for quizzing.

Contacted, Superintendent of Police (SP) of Meherpur Md Sharier said police launched a drive to arrest the culprits immediately after the incident.

According to police, Mizanur and Hashem were at Rajdhani Store, a cosmetics shop owned by Mizanur at around 9:30pm when four people came there on two motorbikes and threw two bombs at the store.

Besides the councillors, three employees of the shop-- Nurul Islam, Nayan and Milon-- sustained injuries in the attack.

The injured were taken to Meherpur General Hospital where doctors sent Mizanur and Nayan to Dhaka Medical College and Hospital as their condition deteriorated.

Earlier on March 27, a BNP activist was killed in a bomb attack in Mujibnagar upazila headquarters in Meherpur.

The dead was Bina Khan, 35, an activist of the party also son of Mujibnagar upazila unit BNP president Ibrahim Hossain.

Police are yet to make any headway in the case, too.

10 hurt as villagers clash in B'baria

UNB, B'baria

At least 10 people were injured in a clash between two groups of people over a piece of disputed land at Narui village in Nabinagar upazila Saturday.

Police and witnesses said there was a longstanding conflict between Tofael Ahmed and Siraj Miah of the village over the ownership of the land.

They said, an altercation ensued when Siraj and his men tried to take control of a disputed house of Tofael in the afternoon.

Later, both the groups equipped with lethal weapons and sticks attacked each other, leaving 10 people, including Tofael, seriously injured.

The injured were admitted to Sadar hospital.
