NIZAMI, MOJAHID

Interrogation at 'safe home'

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The International Crimes Tribunal has allowed interrogators to quiz detained Jamaat-e-Islami leaders Motiur Rahman Nizami and Ali Ahsan Mohammad Mojaheed with links to war crimes at a "Safe Home" in the capital instead of Dhaka Central Jail.

The court order came yesterday following a petition filed on Sunday by investigators probing 1971 war crimes.

The three-member court headed by Justice Nizamul Haque allowed the investigators to quiz Nizami and Mojaheed from 10:00am to 5:00pm on two dates in a "Safe Home" in Dhanmondi.

The court directed the jail authorities to make arrangements to take the detainees to the "Safe Home" and bring them back to prison.

Australia take series 3-0

MOHAMMAD ISAM

Though there was some sting from the 3-0 series loss and Australia's gargantuan score yesterday, it hardly dampened the mood of Imrul Kayes, Shahriar Nafees and Mahmudullah as the trio decided to give coach Jamie Siddons an enjoyable farewell.

To make it a somewhat memorable last game in charge for Siddons, one of his protégé, Kayes, struck a remarkable 93 while Riyad, someone he has
