College teacher gets RI for torturing wife

STAFF CORRESPONDENT,
Rajshahi

A court here yesterday sentenced a government college teacher to three years rigorous imprisonment (RI) for torturing his wife.

Convict Humayun Kabir Jewel was an English teacher of Rajshahi New Government Degree College when the incident took place in September last year.

He was transferred to Sonagazi Government College in Feni following unrest in the city demanding his punishment.

Afzal Hossain, the first tribunal judge of the Women and Children Repression Prevention Court in Rajshahi pronounced the verdict.

The court also fined Jewel Tk 1000, in default, to undergo another six months imprisonment.

According to the prosecution, Jewel mercilessly beat up his wife Farhana Rubaiya Jhuma at their house in the city's Hoseniganj area on September 14 following her refusal to bring dowry of Tk 15 lakh.

Seriously injured Jhuma was admitted to Rajshahi Medical College and Hospital.

She later lodged a case against Jewel with Rajpara police station on September 23, 2010.

Jhuma in her case alleged that Jewel had an extramarital affair with another girl. He was torturing her for several months in the name of dowry. On the day, he attempted to murder her, said Jhuma's lawyer Dil Sitara Begum Chuni.

Storm has gone, ordeal is on

A CORRESPONDENT, Jamalpur

Students of a registered primary school in Koroichura Union under Madarganj upazila of the district attend classes under the open sky as the tin-roofed school was razed to ground during storm that lashed the area on Sunday night.

Abdur Rouf, headmaster of Dakkhin Koroichura Registered Primary School, said local donors built the school with bamboo poles and tin sheet roofing in 1983. The school got government registration in 1994, he added.

Poor students from Mahishbathan, Vangbari, Dhulirband villages under Koroichura Union and Gupalpur village under Gunaritolta Union are studying at different classes of the school. There are only four teachers, including the headmaster, for around 250 students.

Though some officials of donor agencies and LGED had visited the school several times, no concrete school building is yet to be built, the headmaster said, adding that local lawmaker has remained indifferent to the need.

He sought financial assistance from the government to rebuild the school before the upcoming rainy season.

Transport strike in Meherpur

OUR CORRESPONDENT,
Kushthia

Transport owners and workers in Meherpur yesterday enforced an indefinite transport strike demanding ban on Easy Bike, a battery run carrier.

The strike is a sequel to Monday's clash between bus workers and Easy Bike owners in Judge Court area in Meherpur town.

Meanwhile, local administration imposed Section 144 on gathering at Sahid Shamsuzzoha Park in the town as both groups called a meeting there. Transports in all routes in Meherpur remained off the road since morning.

Plying of all modes of vehicles came to a halt at first on Monday night as the Easy Bike owners and workers called for an indefinite transport strike on all routes in the district from Tuesday.

The strike was called off the next day following a request of district administration. The district administration called a meeting with both the groups.

A meeting was held at the deputy commissioner's (DC) conference room at night.

"We were forced to go on strike as the meeting failed," Zohrul Islam, president of transport owners association in Meherpur said.

The owners demanded ban of service by Easy Bikes on highways outside the town. But the Easy Bike owners disagreed and called a symaltaneous meeting at Sahid Samsuzzoha Park at 4:00pm today.

According to police, the clash took place on Monday after some Easy Bikes were taking passengers parking on the main road in Judge Court area at about 2:30 pm.

The bus drivers on the road protested. At one stage, some Easy Bike owners beat up a worker of a bus. Within moments, the two groups locked in severe clashes in the town areas.
