

Asian shares fall

AFP, Hong Kong

Shares fell in Asia on Monday as worries over Europe's debt crisis were brought sharply into focus by the arrest of IMF chief Dominique Strauss-Kahn.

Tokyo closed down 0.94 percent, losing 90.47 points to stand at 9,558.30. Sydney slumped 1.30 percent, or 61.4 points, to a two-month-low 4,650.00, and Seoul closed 0.75 percent, or 15.9 points, lower at 2,104.18.

Hong Kong finished 1.36 percent, or 315.64 points, lower at 22,960.63 and Shanghai was off 0.76 percent, or 21.96 points, at 2,849.07.

Indian shares fell 1.01 percent as concerns also rose over inflation after state-owned fuel firms hiked petrol prices by nearly nine percent -- a record rise -- at the weekend. The benchmark 30-share Sensex closed down 186.25 points at 18,345.03.

The Dow Jones Industrial Average dropped a hefty 100.17 points (0.79 percent) to finish at 12,595.75, while the broader S&P 500 index slid 10.88 points (0.81 percent) to 1,337.77.

The single European unit fell half a cent in opening Asian trade to $1.4056, down from $1.4108 in New York late Friday, but recovered to $1.4126 as investors moved to lock in profits from earlier losses.

The single European currency rose to 114.14 yen, compared to 113.99 yen in late New York trade. The dollar rose to 80.82 yen from 80.71 yen.

The rise of the dollar hit oil, which is priced in the US currency and becomes relatively more expensive in tandem with the greenback.

In Asian afternoon trade New York's main contract, light sweet crude for delivery in June, fell $1.26 to $98.39 per barrel, and Brent North Sea crude for June delivery shed 97 cents to $112.86.

Gold closed in Hong Kong at $1,496.00-$1,497.00 per ounce, down from its Friday close of $1,514.00-$1,515.00.

In other markets:

Manila bucked the regional trend to close 0.20 percent higher on heavy buying of key blue chips. The composite index rose 8.70 points to 4,300.81. Singapore closed 0.86 percent, or 27.2 points, lower at 3,136.48.

Syed Moazzem Hussain, executive committee chairman of Pubali Bank, opens the bank's Mathbaria branch in Pirojpur recently. Helal Ahmed Chowdhury, managing director, was also present.

Md Harunur Rashid, NCC Bank vice chairman, inaugurates the 81st branch of the bank in Barisal on Sunday. Mohammed Nurul Amin, managing director, was also present.
