OBITUARY

Sultan Reza passed away on May 26, 2011 in Kochi, India. He spent his last days in this life doing what he loved the most, vacationing in a beautiful part of the world with his wife of 41 years, Farida ("Saba") Reza.
Sultan, or "Babu" as he was affectionately known by his family, was born in Calcutta, India on January 2, 1939. He came to Dhaka with his family as a boy and studied in New Government High School and Notre Dame College where he developed his lifelong love of sports.
In 1972 Sultan left Dhaka to start a new life in the United States with his wife and infant daughter. The Reza family lived in the Washington metropolitan area for over three decades until Sultan and Saba returned to Dhaka in 2009 after retirement. His career included serving as Director of Marketing for NCBA in Washington, D.C.
Sultan Reza is survived not only by his siblings, wife, daughters Mona, Hooma and Seema and grandchildren Inshira, Ali, Jenna and Omar, but also by a worldwide network of beloved cousins, uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews and friends too numerous to name but who each individually enriched his life.
His janaza prayers will be held at the Baridhara Jame Masjid (Dutabash Road) after Asr prayers on Sunday, May 29, 2011. The burial at Banani graveyard will follow immediately thereafter.
The family will be holding a Qul Khwani on Wednesday, June 1, 2011 following Maghrib prayers at the Baridhara Jame Masjid at Road # 1, Dutabash Road.
Relatives, friends and well-wishers are invited to attend.
