BNP seeks to step up anti-govt agitation through polls in 16 unions around Dhaka

RAKIB HASNET SUMAN

To ensure unity in the party's city unit ahead of the planned anti-government agitation, BNP has decided to back single candidate for the post of chairman in each of the 16 unions around the capital where elections to union parishads will be held next month.

The main opposition party will not allow more than one contestant for the post of chairman to use party identity. In case of such elections, usually a number of leaders defy party orders and contest the polls, weakening the chances of victory of the party-backed candidate.

All political parties consider control of the 16 unions vital as party leaders and activists usually collect people from these areas for successfully staging big political programmes like grand rallies and other political show-downs.

BNP leaders think if the party-backed candidates can win these elections, it will bolster the city BNP as these unions are in the capital's Uttara, Demra, Shyampur, Badda and Khilgaon thanas, although these are not part of city corporation.

Fifty-five percent of the ADP will come from internal resources while the rest from foreign aid.

Transport, the second priority sector, will get Tk 7,749 crore which is 16.85 percent of the ADP.

The NEC also revised for the second time this year's ADP to Tk 35,830 crore from Tk 38,130 crore. The amount was originally Tk 38,500 crore.

The additional allocation of Tk 700 crore will come from internal resources and will be spent on 18 projects including a new one, said the minister.

A total of 223 projects will be completed this year, sources said, adding that the government aims to implement 305 projects in the next FY.

A planning ministry official said the prime minister in the meeting asked the ministries to complete the projects by giving more allocations so that the government can take up more projects in future.

SEWAGE TREATMENT LAGOONS Fish poisoned to death

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Dhaka water supply and sewerage authority (Wasa) on the second day of a drive yesterday killed around 150 kg fish of Wasa sewage treatment lagoons at Pagla in Narayanganj.

Fishing and fish cultivation were banned in Wasa lagoons around 12 years ago as fishes of the lagoons contain too much metal, said a Wasa official.

Atikur Rahman, Wasa executive engineer, said they killed fish of three lagoons by pouring poison and burnt the dead fish.

The Wasa on Saturday began the 10-day drive and killed about 1600 kg of fish from two lagoons out of 16 lagoons that day, he said.

The lagoon water contains human waste and industrial waste which carry heavy metals like chromium, cadmium, arsenic, lead, nickel and mercury. Fishes grown in the lagoons feed waste material but cannot
