

Asian markets soar

AFP, Hong Kong

Asian stocks surged on Tuesday, with Tokyo boosted by data showing factory output lifted last month, raising hopes for Japan's recovery from the March 11 earthquake and tsunami.

The yen tumbled against the dollar and euro after Moody's warned that it may cut Japan's debt rating, while the European unit was also given a lift by a report that Germany may drop its call for Greece to restructure its debt.

Tokyo ended 1.99 percent, or 188.76 points, up at 9,693.73, its best percentage jump since March 30, while Sydney added 0.87 percent, or 40.8 points, to 4,708.3 and Seoul finished 2.32 percent, or 48.68 points, up at 2,142.47.

Hong Kong finished 2.16 percent higher, adding 499.81 points to 23,684.13 while Shanghai gained 1.37 percent, or 37.11 points, to 2,743.47.

The Nikkei rallied after the government said factory output rose one percent in April from the previous month.

Most of the Nikkei's big names rose, although Tokyo Electric Power, which operates the Fukushima atomic plant that was crippled by the March 11 disaster, slipped 2.76 percent a day after Standard & Poor's cut its credit rating.

The greenback rose to 81.23 yen in Tokyo afternoon trade from 80.79 yen in late Monday. The euro fetched $1.4382, up from $1.4264, and 116.82 yen from 115.24 yen.

New York markets were closed on Monday for a public holiday.

New York's main contract, light sweet crude for July delivery, gained 57 cents to $101.16 a barrel and Brent North Sea crude for July delivery was up 62 cents at $115.30 in the afternoon.

Gold closed at $1,539.00-$1,540.00 per ounce in Hong Kong, up from Monday's close of $1,535.00-$1,536.00.

In other markets: Singapore closed up 19.33 points, or 0.62 percent, to 3,159.93. Bangkok edged down 0.25 percent or 2.67 points to 1,073.83.

Mumbai rose 1.49 percent, or 271.22 points, to 18,503.28. India's largest commercial bank State Bank of India rose 2.76 percent or 61.8 rupees to 2,297.80.

Roger Hubert, vice president of Li and Fung (Bangladesh) Ltd, and Abhay Seth, chief sales and marketing officer of Airtel Bangladesh, sign a deal in Dhaka on Monday under which Li and Fung will enjoy customised call tariff and value-added services of Airtel.

The ninth annual general meeting of BSRM Steels Ltd was held at the Institution of Engineers Bangladesh in Chittagong yesterday. The company approved 20 percent stock dividends for 2010.
