

Asian shares down

AFP, Hong Kong
Asian shares dropped on Monday as Tokyo was pulled lower by a plunging TEPCO and after dismal jobs figures in the US pointed to a faltering recovery in the world's largest economy.

The embattled utility was the biggest loser on the Nikkei after reports that it was to record a massive loss following the meltdown at its Fukushima nuclear power plant.

Trading around the region was thin, with five markets on holiday, including Shanghai, Hong Kong and Seoul.

Tokyo shares finished the day 1.18 percent, or 111.86 points, lower at 9,380.35, an 11-week low.

Sydney was down 0.31 percent, or 14.0 points, at 4569.1. Singapore ended 1.02 percent, or 31.94 points, lower at 3,113.73.

US jobs data released Friday sent US stocks down as the Labor Department reported that the economy added a paltry 54,000 jobs in May.

In closing trade Friday the Dow Jones Industrial Average was off 97.29 points (0.79 percent) at 12,151.26.

The Japanese market was dragged by Tokyo Electric Power Co. (TEPCO), the operator of the crippled Fukushima Daiichi nuclear power plant which has leaked radiation since its cooling systems were swamped by the tsunami of March 11.

The stock closed at 207 yen, down 79 yen from Friday, a slip better than its intra-day low of 206 yen.

The euro stood at $1.4637 in the afternoon, almost unchanged from $1.4638 in New York late Friday. The European single currency rose to 117.58 yen from 117.40 yen.

The dollar firmed to 80.31 yen from 80.25 yen.

The euro held firm after the EU, International Monetary Fund and European Central Bank said Friday they have agreed to extend the next tranche of funds under Greece's debt rescue accord package, most likely in July.

Oil was down ahead of a key OPEC meeting this week in Vienna.

New York's main contract, light sweet crude for July delivery, dipped 14 cents to $100.08 a barrel and Brent North Sea crude for July delivery lost 41 cents at $115.43 in the afternoon.

In other markets:
Bangkok slid 1.11 percent, or 11.70 points, to 1,046.16. Mumbai rose 0.24 percent, or 43.63 points, to 18,420.11 on bargain hunting and easing of crude oil prices.

India's largest private aluminium producer Hindalco fell 1.69 percent to 186.2 rupees while auto and farm equipment maker Mahindra and Mahindra slipped 1.43 percent to 657.65.

Hong Kong, Shanghai, Taipei, Seoul and Wellington were closed.

PEOPLES INSURANCE
Md Abul Bashar, chairman of Peoples Insurance Company, presides over the company's 26th annual general meeting at Dhaka Ladies Club recently. The insurer declared 5 percent cash and 5 percent stock dividends for 2010. MH Khaled, managing director, was also present.

AL-ARAFAH ISLAMI BANK
Badiur Rahman, chairman of Al-Arafah Islami Bank, presides over the bank's 16th annual general meeting at Officers Club in Dhaka yesterday. The bank approved 26 percent stock dividend for 2010. Ekramul Hoque, managing director, was also present.
