

Asian markets mixed

AFP, Hong Kong

Asian stocks were mixed on Tuesday in the first day of region-wide trade after a long weekend, with bargain hunting weighed by another poor show on Wall Street and global economic fears.

Tokyo gained 0.67 percent, or 62.60 points, to 9,442.95 while Shanghai rose 0.60 percent, or 16.28 points, to 2,744.30 and Sydney was flat, edging down 2.8 points to 4,566.3.

Seoul lost 0.65 percent, or 13.76 points, to 2,099.71 and Hong Kong fell 0.35 percent, or 80.89 points, to 22,868.67.

The Nikkei was supported by TEPCO, which rose on an announcement by chief government spokesman Yukio Edano that it should avoid bankruptcy proceedings to ensure compensation to people affected by its crippled nuclear power plant.

Japan's biggest power company dived nearly 28 percent on Monday amid fears of a massive loss for the year to March 2012 and of delisting from the stock market.

The Nikkei's gain snapped three straight losses for the index, in which time it shed more than 3.5 percent.

On currency markets the dollar rose against the Japanese currency after slipping in New York to below 80 yen because of US economic concerns.

The greenback firmed to 80.22 yen in Tokyo morning trade from 80.07 yen in New York on Monday. The euro traded at $1.4640, up from $1.4572. The European single currency also gained to 117.50 yen from 116.75 yen.

Oil was down. New York's main contract, light sweet crude for July delivery, lost 54 cents to $98.47 a barrel and Brent North Sea crude for July delivery dipped 60 cents to $113.88 in the afternoon.

Gold closed in Hong Kong at $1,545.50-$1,546.50 per ounce, up from its Friday close of $1,531.00-$1,532.00. The market was shut on Monday for a public holiday.

In other markets

Singapore closed up 2.22 points, or 0.07 percent, to 3,115.95. SingTel lost 0.32 percent to Sg$3.13 and CapitaLand rose 0.33 percent to Sg$3.03.

Bangkok fell 1.09 percent, or 11.41 points, to 1,034.75.

Mumbai rose 0.41 percent, or 75.51 points, to 18,495.62. India's largest private firm Reliance Industries rose 1.96 percent or 18.4 rupees to 956.5 while the second largest software exporter Infosys Technologies rose 1.81 percent or 51.3 rupees to 2,889.75.

Shares in India's largest passenger car maker Maruti Suzuki India rose 1.06 percent or 13.1 rupees to 1,245, on bargain-hunting after earlier falls when an impromptu strike halted production at a plant in the north of the country.

SOUTHEAST BANK
Mahbubul Alam, managing director of Southeast Bank, and Taqsem A Khan, managing director of Dhaka Wasa, sign a deal at the bank's Karwan Bazar branch in Dhaka yesterday. Dhaka Wasa subscribers can now pay their bills at any branches of the bank.

EBL
Eastern Bank and South Asia Enterprise Development Facility organised a two-day workshop on trade finance at Hotel Peninsula in Chittagong on Saturday.
