15 injured as villagers clash

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Noakkhali

At least 15 people were injured on Sunday night in a clash between two groups of villagers at Harinarayanpur Bazaar under Sadar police station over a trifling issue. Of the injured, Ala Uddin, Palash, Kala Mia and Rasel were treated at local clinics. Fifteen shops were vandalised during the two and a half-hour-long sporadic clashes. Police fired six bullets to bring the situation under control. The clash ensued at about 10:30pm following an altercation over repayment of borrowed money at a barber shop. Later the clash spread involving the people of two villages -- Harinarayanpur and Rajarampur.

Shiva icon vandalised

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Narail

Criminals on Monday night vandalised an image of Hindu god Shiva at the two-hundred year-old Hasratola Kali Temple at Tangrakhal village under Shingasholpur union in Sadar upazila. Locals said, a gang entered the temple breaking open its lock and ransacked the room. They separated the idol's head from its body. Ashwini Kumar Mollick, president of the temple committee said that they are yet to identify the culprits. However, he demanded proper investigation and punishment to those involved. Contacted, Md Rafiqul Islam, OC of Narail PS said a police team has gone to the spot. "We shall take necessary steps to find the culprits," he said.

Rape of schoolgirl: 3 sued

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Sathkhira

A case was filed with Assassuni PS yesterday against three people in connection with alleged attempt to rape a school student at Jaduadanga village in Assassuni upazila. The accused are Prashanta Kumar Sarkar, 16, his father Mahananda Sarkar, 42, and mother Chapala Rani Sarkar, 37, of Jaduadanga. But police failed to arrest the accused as they went into hiding soon after the incident, police said. Victim's mother filed the case alleging that Prashanta used to stalk her daughter, a class seven student of Kadakati High School. Yesterday he entered into the kitchen and tried to violate her daughter in absence of her parents.

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Patuakhali

An employee of Dhaka City Corporation (DCC) was killed by the members of his family at Mominpur village under Baufal upazila yesterday morning. The victim was identified as Siddiq Munshi, 35. Police said there was a long standing dispute over a piece of land among brothers and sisters of Siddiq. When Siddiq came home from Dhaka at about 9:30 am yesterday, his brother Faysal Munshi, 28, and sisters Nahida, 26, Sumi Begum, 24, and Alotaz Begum, 18, jointly attacked him with sharp weapons leaving Siddiq dead on the spot.

SELLING OF 18 TREES 'FOR MOSQUE'

KJRI official being taken to task

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Kishoreganj

Senior scientific officer of Kishoreganj Jute Research Institute (KJRI) Enayetur Rahman Chowdhury has been withdrawn from the office and sent to Dhaka.

Disciplinary action will be taken against him on the basis of the probe report on alleged selling of trees and tube-well of the institute by him, Md Kamal Uddin, director general of KJRI told this correspondent on Monday.

Earlier, The Daily Star, published a report headlined 'Trees felled, tube-well sold for building mosque at

Follow-up

KJRI' on June 8.

According to the report, Enayetur Rahman Chowdhury allegedly took the decision to sell 18 trees worth around Tk 5 lakh of the institute illegally to timber trader Chan Mia, who later felled those trees.

Enayet also sold an old deep tube-well for Tk 25 thousand without permission of higher authorities concerned in the name of construction of a mosque at the institute.

On June 9, a three-member committee was formed to probe the allegations.

Headed by D Abbas Ali, chief of BJRI genetic and seed resource department, the other members are Dr Md Mujibur Rahman, chief of farm management unit, BJRI and Md Abdul Matin, sub-director (finance), BJRI.

The committee submitted its report to BJRI DG Kamal Uddin on Sunday.

Without elaborating, Kamal Uddin said yesterday that a disciplinary action will be taken against Enayetur Rahman Chowdhury soon after going through the details of the investigation report.

Human chain for cultural centre at RU

RU CORRESPONDENT

Leaders and activists of cultural and left leaning political organisations at Rajshahi University (RU) yesterday formed a human chain demanding fresh construction of the Teachers Students Cultural Centre (TSCC) on the campus.

Sources said around 300 participants under the banner of Kendrio Sangskritik Jote formed the human chain in front of the university central library around 11:00am.

They also brought out a procession and held a rally on the campus to press home their demand. General students of the university also joined the programme.

Later, they held a cultural programme rendering folk and patriotic songs on the central library premises.

At the rally, speakers alleged that the university authorities started construction work of TSCC building in 2006 but the building collapsed before its completion due to poor management.

They also alleged that every year the authorities collect Tk 50 from each student for TSCC purpose but they do not take any step for implementation of the TSCC project.

Sector Commanders Forum, Ghatak Dalal Nirmul Committee, Sammilita Sangskritik Jote, Bangladesh Muktiyoddha Sangsad and a few political parties jointly form a human chain in front of Manikganj Press Club yesterday demanding restoration of '72 constitution without any amendments. Similar programmes were held in other districts also.

Two jailed for stalking

STAR NATIONAL DESK

A former BDR man and a teenage boy were sentenced to jail for one year each in separate incidents of stalking on Monday.

A mobile court in Shailakupa upazila of Jhenidah on Monday convicted a former BDR jawan and sentenced him to one year imprisonment for sexually harassing a schoolgirl.

Officer-in-charge of Shailakupa police station Sagir Miah said, police arrested Abdur Razzak following a complaint of her father, reports UNB.

Razzak was punished as he forcibly hugged daughter of Tobarok Mollah of Damukdia village on her way to Monoharpur Kabi Golam Mostafa Secondary School.

In Lalmonirhat, a teenage boy was sentenced to jail for one year on Monday for sexually harassing a schoolgirl in West Bejgram village of Hatibandha upazila, reports our correspondent.

Convict Sazedul Islam, 16, son of Afzal Hossain, is a student of Class-X in Hatibandha SS High School.

According to police, Sazedul Islam had been stalking a student of class eight in Hatibandha Shah Gorbullah Girls High School for the last three months.

Victims father Ali Akhter Kibriya told the matter to Sazedul's father several times but Afzal Hossain took no action.

Kibriya called the police when Sazedul was teasing the girl at her home at noon. Police rushed in and arrested him from the spot.
