

Asian markets welcome Greek confidence vote

AFP, Hong Kong
Asian stock markets jumped on Wednesday after Greece's embattled prime minister won a confidence vote, taking him a step closer to pushing through austerity measures and avoiding a default.

Tokyo rose 1.79 percent, or 169.77 points, to 9,629.43 and Seoul closed 0.77 percent, or 15.73 points, higher at 2,063.90.

Sydney ended up 0.54 percent, or 24.4 points, at 4,532.6.

Hong Kong edged up 9.38 points to 21,859.97 and Shanghai rose 0.11 percent, or 2.84 points, to 2,649.32 with gains capped in both markets by concerns over a widely expected interest rate hike on the mainland.

The eurozone issued an ultimatum to Greece on Monday, when it held back the latest slice of a 110-billion-euro ($160-billion) rescue loan package agreed last year.

On currency markets the euro edged down to $1.4370 in European early trade from $1.4408 in New York late Tuesday. The European single currency also eased to 115.31 yen from 115.53 yen.

The dollar was at 80.21 yen against 80.22 yen.

With the breathing space provided by the vote, attention could now shift to the US economy and a key meeting of the Federal Open Market Committee, the body within the Federal Reserve that sets interest rates.

The FOMC began its two-day meeting on Tuesday, and on Wednesday it is expected to announce that it will allow its $600 billion asset purchase programme to expire as scheduled at the end of June.

Oil was mixed. New York's main contract, West Texas Intermediate (WTI) light sweet crude for August delivery, fell 58 cents to $93.59 a barrel in the afternoon.

Brent North Sea crude for delivery in August rose seven cents to $111.02.

Gold closed in Hong Kong at $1,546.00-$1,547.00 an ounce, slightly up from Tuesday's close of $1,544.00-$1,545.00.

In other markets: Singapore fell 0.35 percent, or 10.68 points, to 3,042.83.

Bangkok fell 0.38 percent, or 3.86 points, to 1,023.86. Mumbai ended flat, edging down 9.67 points to 17,550.63.

Passenger car maker Maruti Suzuki India fell 2.39 percent to 1,119.05 rupees and software outsourcing TCS slid 1.86 percent to 1,086.3 rupees.

Hadenan Bin Abdul Jalil, chairman of ICB Islamic Bank, presides over the bank's 24th annual general meeting at Army Golf Club in Dhaka on Tuesday. Mamoon Mahmood Shah, managing director, was also present.

Kaiser A Chowdhury, president and managing director of AB Bank, inaugurates the 83rd branch of the bank at Kashem Plaza in Ashuganj in Brahmanbaria on Sunday.
