HASAN JAHD TUSHER

In an effort to beautify the urban neighbourhoods of the country, the cabinet yesterday approved the Wall Writing and Poster Setting (Control) Act, 2011. None will be allowed to deface walls with graffiti and posters, according to the act adopted by a weekly cabinet meeting, with Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina in the chair. People or organisations will only be allowed to put up posters in the government-designated spots by paying required fees, prime minister's Press Secretary Abul Kalam Azad told newsmen after the meeting.

SEXUAL ASSAULT

Teacher makes confession

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Porimol Joydhor, the sacked Bangla teacher of Viqarunnisa Noon School and College, yesterday confessed to sexually assaulting a class-X female student of the school's Bashundhara branch.

He made the confessional statement before Metropolitan Magistrate Shahriar Mahmud Adnan at his chamber, said Investigation Officer Shahadat Hossain. "He [Porimol] has confessed to violating the girl twice," Shahadat said adding that the accused, however, denied taking any picture of the girl.
