Retired police held on charge of cheating

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Detective Branch (DB) of police arrested a retired police constable from the city's Banashree area on charge of taking money from several job seekers in the name of providing jobs at Border Guard Bangladesh and Bangladesh Army on Tuesday.

Police seized several fake appointment letters of BGB and army, fake seals, answer sheets, application and medical forms of army recruitment from the possession of detained Tariqul Islam, 45, son of late Mokam Mollah, of South Banashree of Khilgaon Police Station.

DB Senior Assistant Commissioner Abdul Ahad said they arrested Tariq following a case filed by one of the cheated job seekers, Shamim Ahmed, with Khilgaon Police Station on Tuesday.

13 killed in road crashes

METRO DESK

Thirteen people were killed and 27 others injured in road accidents in the city and in Munshiganj, Natore, Satkhira, and Dinajpur yesterday.

Our staff correspondent reports: A bus-pickup collision on Dhaka-Demra highway in Konapara left a minor boy and the pickup driver dead yesterday.

They are Rakibul Islam, 6, son of Rafiqul Islam of the city's Golapbagh in Jatrabari, and the driver, Abdul Khalek, 45.

Rakibul, who was aboard the pickup with his parents, was declared dead in Dhaka Medical College Hospital. The injured parents took primary treatment in the hospital.

Our Munshiganj correspondent reports: Five passengers and the driver of a CNG-run auto-rickshaw died as a truck crashed into the vehicle on Dhaka-Mawa highway in Sirajdikhan upazila yesterday.

The deceased are Ahladi Begum, 40, Meem, 20, Renu Begum, 55, Mainul, a six-month-old baby, and the auto-rickshaw driver Shahabuddin, 35. The other victim remained unidentified.

The bus also injured 20 people as it ploughed through pedestrians while fleeing the scene.

Our Natore correspondent says: Four people were killed and five others wounded as a truck rammied a mini-truck at Khejurtola in Singra upazila yesterday.

Roisuddin, 60, and Sakil Hossain, 45, passengers of the mini-truck, died on the spot while Golam Hossain, 6, and its driver Uzzal died in Natore sadar hospital.

The injured were taken to different local hospitals and the sadar hospital.

Our Satkhira correspondent adds: An unidentified woman aged about 70 died on the spot after being knocked down by a truck on Satkhira-Kaliganj road in Alipur village of the sadar upazila yesterday.

Our Dinajpur correspondent says: A youth yesterday succumbed to his injuries inflicted as a truck hit his motorcycle from behind near Kasinathpur village under the sadar upazila Tuesday night.

The victim is Razu Mia, 20, son of Khademul Islam of Sheikhpura village under the upazila. Razu died in Dinajpur Medical College Hospital.

90 IAB men get bail

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Two separate division benches of High Court (HC) yesterday granted a one-month anticipatory bail to 90 activists of Islami Andolan Bangladesh (IAB), accused in eight separate criminal cases.

Some local individuals of Sonargaon, Siddhirganj and Fatullah of Narayanganj filed the cases with the respective police stations of the areas on July 12 and 20. The charges were for vandalising vehicles and blocking roads during a countrywide hartal enforced by IAB on July 10.

The accused including Atiqur Rahman, ameer of its Narayanganj unit, appeared before the HC benches for bail, Barrister Fakhrul Islam, one of their lawyers, told The Daily Star.

DRIVE AGAINST ILLEGAL PROJECTS Over 12 billboards demolished

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Rajdhani Unnayan Karttripakhya (Rajuk) in an eviction drive knocked down more than a dozen of billboards and signboards of half a dozen illegal private housing projects in the city's eastern fringe yesterday.

The drive was carried out in Uttarkhan and Dakhkhinhan areas.

The projects, of which signboards were demolished, included Ashyan City, Spring Town of Metro Group, Wasin City of Bepari Land Development, Swarnali Abasan of Swadesh Properties and Rahmatnagar Abashik Prokalpa of Dishari Real Estate, said

Rokon-Ud-Dowla, executive magistrate of Rajuk.

The projects are being developed illegally in violation of master plan, wetland and environment conservation laws and private housing development rules in and around the capital city, said Rokon, who led the drive.

Two authorised officers of Rajuk, a deputy town planner and two inspectors assisted the drive.

A High Court bench on June 8 declared a total of 77 private housing projects illegal and directed Rajuk to evict such projects, remove signboards, earth-filling and stop sale of plots.

5 Hizb ut-Tahrir men held

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Five members of banned Islamist outfit Hizb ut-Tahrir Bangladesh were arrested from the city early yesterday.

A huge quantity of leaflets and other publications were also seized from their possession, said Major Khurshid Alam, deputy director of Legal and Media Wing of Rapid Action Battalion (Rab).

Rab arrested adviser of the organisation Mahmudul Bari, 41, from Shahjalal International Airport around 1:00am yesterday when he was trying to leave for Malaysia, he said.

Bari was also the managing director of developer company, Silver Sand Reality.

He had been playing key role in the organisation after the arrest of its senior leaders like Mohiuddin Ahmed, Golam Molla and Kazi Morshedul Huq, claimed Rab officials.

Rab also seized a huge quantity of publications of the banned organisation from his possession.

In another raid, Gulshan police arrested four alleged young members of Hizb ut-Tahrir from a house in front of South East University around 5:45am, said the police.

They are Anisur Rahman, Sabbir Ahmed Bhuiyan, Afzal Hossain and Maruf Islam Nadim.

Additional Deputy Commissioner Masudur Rahman said police also seized a huge number of leaflets and other publications from their possession.

On October 22, 2009 the government banned all kinds of activities of Hizb ut-Tahrir Bangladesh and since then around 400 leaders and activists of the organisation have been arrested across the country.
