Education MP style

AL lawmaker Mannan heads managing bodies of 7 institutions; his wife, former night guard, 2 aides in charge of 4 others

RASHIDUL HASAN and AZIBOR RAHMAN

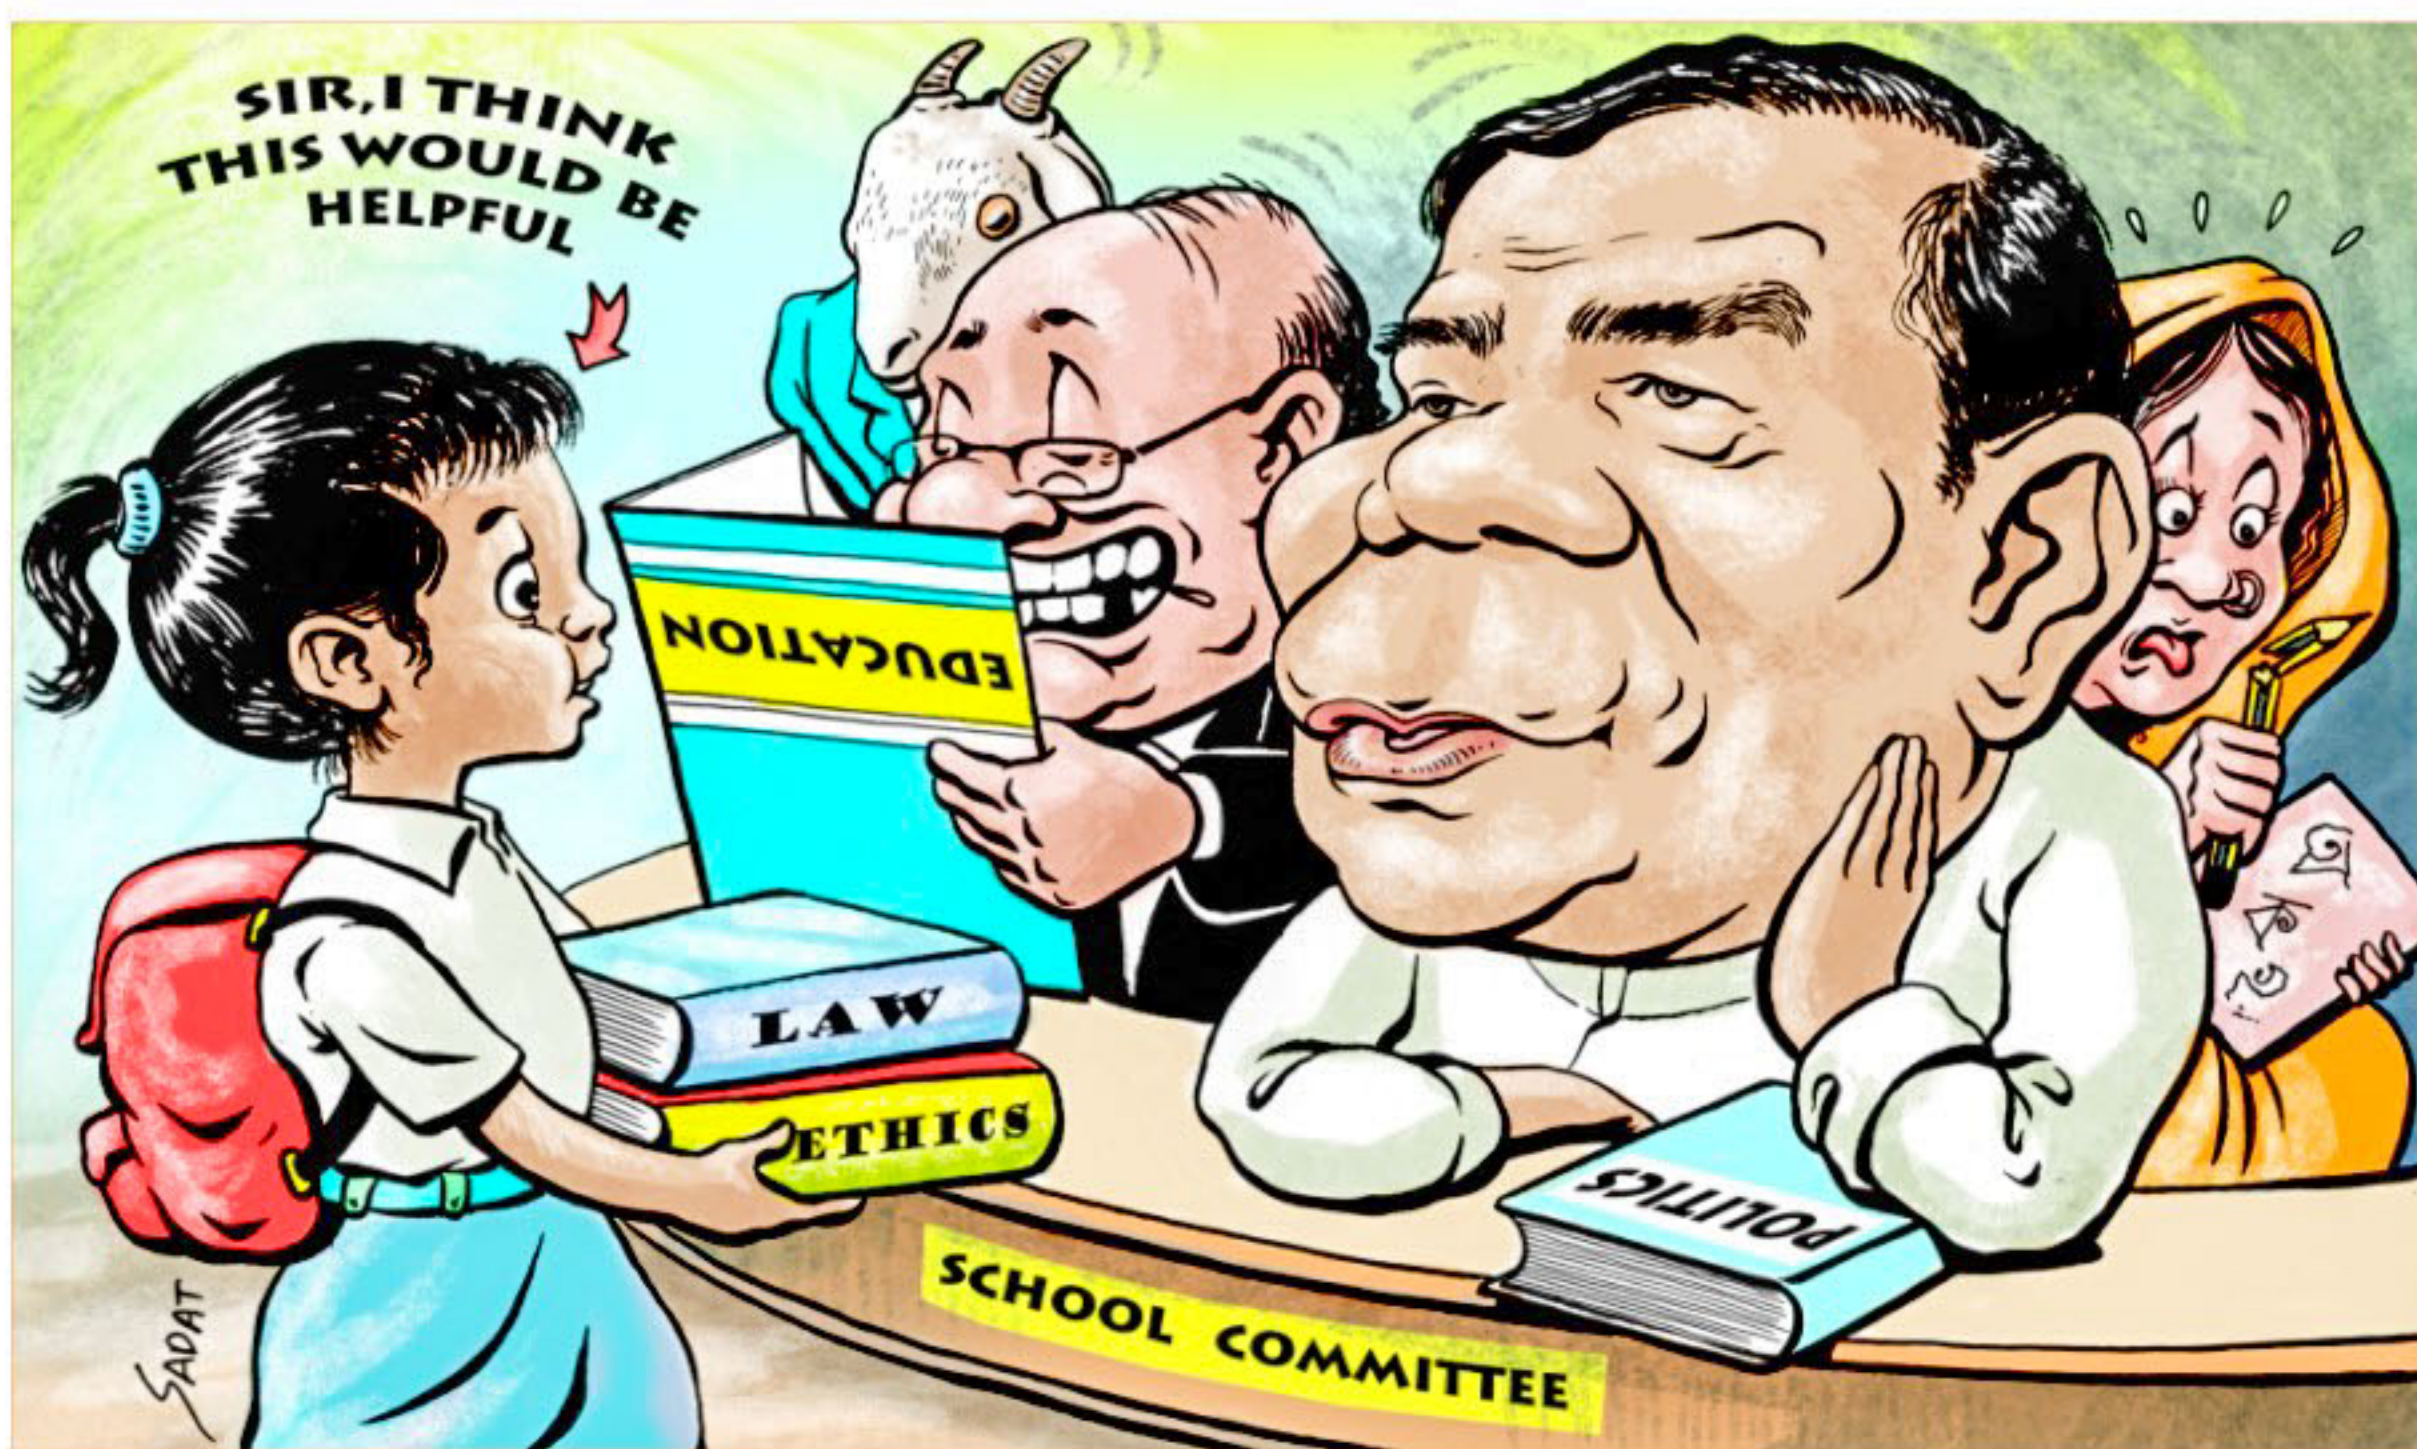

A ruling party lawmaker is chairman of managing committee at seven educational institutions in Jhenidah, flouting government rules.

The rules stipulate that a member of parliament cannot hold chairman's post at more than four institutions. But Abdul Mannan, Awami League legislator from Jhenidah-4 (Kalganaj upazila), heads managing committee at two

11 killed as truck crushes 3-wheeler

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Magura

Eleven people were killed and one was injured as a truck crushed a three-wheel passenger van at Saitrish on the Magura-Jhenidah highway yesterday.

The victims were passengers of the three-wheeler.

The goods-laden truck around 4:15pm rammed into the three-wheeler, which was standing on the roadside, and fell in a ditch, said a witness, Zafar Sheikh of village Saitrish. The accident left 11 passengers of the three-wheeler dead on the spot.

Quoting locals, Sheikh Alamgir Hossain, officer-in-charge of Magura Sadar Police Station, said the accident took place due to careless driving of the trucker.

Following the accident, hundreds of locals put up a barricade on the road disrupting vehicular movement until 6:40pm. They withdrew the protest after a discussion with police officials.

Seven of the deceased were identified as Parveen, 27,

Ensure peace at home first

Fakhrul asks PM on her global peace model

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

BNP Acting Secretary General Mirza Fakhrul Islam Alamgir yesterday urged the prime minister to ensure peace in the country before going for global peace.

"It's funny that the prime minister is presenting a peace model while people are crushed under police boots in the country and the destitute scavenge for food in dustbins," he said at a meeting at

Khaleda was advised to boycott 2008 polls

Her advisers felt it would burnish BNP image

STAR REPORT

BNP Chairperson Khaleda Zia's advisers, who had backed boycotting the December 2008 parliamentary polls, tried to convince her that the boycott would burnish the party's image, said a leaked US diplomatic dispatch.

Citing past records of election boycotts, the cable said, "The lesson from recent Bangladesh history is that boycotts work." The then US ambassador in Dhaka James F Moriarty sent the cable to Washington on November 16, 2008.

"Zia advisers who support a boycott point to history for support. They note

Cops beat up 3 for refusal to pay toll

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Manikganj

Police beat up and broke hands of two people and injured another allegedly for refusing to give them Tk 5,000 in extortion. The incident happened in Manikganj on Saturday night.

The victims are vegetable traders Harun-ar-Rashid and Ekhlash Mia, and truck driver Shahid.

Rashid and Shahid are undergoing treatment at Enam Clinic in Savar. Each of them got his left hand broken, clinic sources told The Daily Star.

Rashid said some policemen stopped their vegetable-laden truck at Shaheed Rafique Bridge

Clarification

Biman Bangladesh Airlines in a clarification to the report headlined "Flight Debacle Hits Biman" published in The Daily Star on September 24 said the crew of a Biman flight discharged the fire extinguishers and took other measures after captain of the flight-005 received a false alarm on the Electronic Centralised Aircraft Monitoring system of the aircraft.

Issued by Khan Musharraf Hussein, general manager, public relations of Biman, the clarification also said though there was no real fire the measures were taken as per Standard Operating
