CRP's activities unique, imitable

Says parliamentary caucus on disability

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The members of Parliamentarians' Caucus on Disability headed by Awami League lawmaker Advocate Abdul Matin Khasru visited the Centre for the Rehabilitation of the Paralyzed (CRP) yesterday to gain practical knowledge about the services of the centre.

CRP Executive Director Shafiq-ul Islam briefed the visiting team comprised of ABM Ghulam Mostafa MP and Rowshan Jahan Shathi MP on the services offered by the CRP to people with disabilities. The National Forum of Organisations Working with the Disabled (NFOWD) coordinated the programme.

Abdul Matin Khasru told The Daily Star, "The way the CRP is working for the treatment and rehabilitation of the physically challenged people at almost free of cost is quite unique not only in Bangladesh but in the world. The combination of such commitment and cordial service is needed at every hospital in the country".

We would recommend to Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina to increase governmental allocation for the CRP headed.

The team members expressed their hope to formulate realistic and supportive laws and policies to uphold the rights and fundamental freedom of people with disabilities from the practical knowledge they gained from the CRP.

Elderly woman killed by domestic help

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

An elderly woman who was hacked allegedly by a female domestic help at her Shyampur residence on Saturday night succumbed to her injuries at a private hospital in the city's Ramna area yesterday.

The dead identified as Hasena Begum, 70, used to live with her family on the 3rd floor of her five-story building on Satish Sarker Road of Shyampur. Hasena was alone at in the house during the incident.

Domestic help Anju Ara Begum, 28, hacked her with a kitchen knife around 11:00pm on Saturday, said family members and police quoting the victim.

Hasena's relatives told this correspondent that Anju took away Tk 50,000 in cash and two tolas of gold ornaments from the almirah and fled the house.

Shyampur police said Anju locked the door of the flat from outside before fleeing.

Hasena's younger son Kamaluddin, a clothes trader at Gulistan, said he had found the door of his mother's flat locked from outside after he returned home.

Kamal said he entered the flat breaking open the door and found his mother bleeding profusely on the floor.

Hasena has two sons and five daughters. Police suspect that there might be a third person behind the killing.

Construction worker dies in fall

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

A construction worker died after falling from an under-construction building in the Dhaka Central Jail compound in the old part of the city last night.

The deceased was identified as Shahidul Islam, 22, son of Siddik Mollah of Faridpur.

Witnesses said Shahidul fell on ground around 8:30pm while checking a water pipeline on a veranda on the third floor of a four-story building built for the jail officials.

He was rushed to Dhaka Medical College Hospital where he succumbed to his injuries around 10:30pm.

BCL drives two students out of DU hall

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Bangladesh Chhatra League at Dhaka University beat up two alleged Shibir activists and forced them out of Sergeant Zahurul Haque Hall in the wee hours of Monday.

The alleged Shibir activists are Imran Hossain, a master's student of the Department of Library Science, and Rafiqul Islam Rony, a third year student of the Department of Anthropology. Both of them were residing in Room-4007.

The hall unit BCL general secretary Shamsul Kabir Rahat told reporters that they ejected them out of hall as they "recovered some Jehadi books from the two students".

Provost Abu Muhammad Delwar Hossain said BCL leaders are not authorised to send students out of hall. "We will take legal actions against the people involved".
