Sylhet student released Indian national Wasim still missing

STAFF CORRESPONDENT,
Sylhet

Law enforcers yesterday released intern Ashrafuzzaman Chowdhury of Jalalabad Ragib-Rabeya Medical College in Sylhet. He was detained on October 5 on suspicion of being involved in the September 7 blast in New Delhi. However, Indian student Wasim of the college still remains missing. He last attended the college on September 22.

Ashrafuzzaman's maternal uncle Nazim Uddin Chowdhury said a jeep dropped Ashrafuzzaman in the city's Amberkhana area around 2:30am. He then called his father Nuruzzaman Chowdhury who rushed to meet him and informed the college.

Family sources said Ashrafuzzaman was blindfolded just after he was picked up near the college campus on October 5 and later quizzed about his Indian intern colleagues and students by people speaking in English, Hindi and Bangla.

ZIA TRUST CASE

Hearing deferred for tenth time

COURT CORRESPONDENT

A Dhaka court yesterday deferred for the tenth time the hearing on charge framing in the Zia Orphanage Trust graft case till December 1.

BNP Chairperson Khaleda Zia, her elder son Tarique Rahman, and four others are accused in the graft case.

Judge Mohammad Moazzam Hossain of the Special Judge Court-3 passed the order after the defence lawyer for Khaleda and Tarique submitted a petition seeking the adjournment, as a writ petition that his clients filed in 2009 remains still pending with the High Court.

Meantime, another Dhaka court yesterday again asked the Anti-Corruption Commission (ACC) to submit probe report by December 21 of the case filed against Khaleda Zia and three others for abusing power to set up Shaheed Zia Charitable Trust.

Metropolitan Magistrate Erfan Ullah passed the order as the ACC failed to submit the report by yesterday.

Three other accused are Harris Chowdhury, political secretary to the then prime minister, Ziaul Islam Munna, Harris' assistant personal secretary and Monirul Islam Khan, APS to Dhaka City Corporation's incumbent Mayor Sadeque Hossain Khoka.
