

RIVAL BNP MEN PARADE MAGURA TOWN

'Dissolve Kabir-Biswas body'

OUR CORRESPONDENT,
Magura

Magura BNP's rival faction yesterday held a meeting and took out a procession in the town to press home its demand for dissolution of the district committee led by Kabir Murad and Ali Ahmed Biswas.

The aggrieved BNP men also burnt the effigies of district unit President Kabir Murad, General Secretary Ali Ahmed Biswas and central BNP leader and former minister advocate Nitai Roy Chowdhury, also from Magura.

They held the meeting at Nomanai Maidan in the district town with advocate Mokaddes Hossain in the chair. Former general secretary of BNP district unit

Mohammad Nazimuddin, former senior vice-president of the same unit Aminul Islam Chandu Mian, leaders of the rival faction Farukuzzaman, advocate Sakhawat Hossain, Khan Hasan Imam Suja, advocate Shaheed Hasan, Faruk Ahmed Babul, Akhter Hossain, and district Jubo Dal leaders Alamgir Hossain and Ashrafuzzaman Shamim addressed the rally, among others.

The speakers said Kabir Murad has no organisational capability to run the party in the district. He has been carrying out the party activities at upazila and union levels through 'pocket' committees comprising 'inefficient' and 'worthless' people, they alleged.

Branding Ali Ahmed Biswas a listed criminal, the rival BNP men said he was a regional leader of outlawed Sarbahara Party and awarded ten years rigorous imprisonment (RI) by the Special Trial Tribunal-7 in Dhaka during army-backed caretaker government for possessing illegal arms. Biswas is now on bail granted by the High Court.

During 'Operation Clean Heart' in 2002, army arrested Ali Ahmed Biwas as a 'listed criminal' and recovered a shutter gun from his possession, they said.

The speakers accused BNP's central leader Nitai

Roy Chowdhury for harbouring a 'listed criminal' like Ali Ahmed Biswas. Nitai helped Biswas get the post of general secretary of the district unit, they said.

They urged the central committee to immediately dissolve the Murad-Biswas committee and form a new one with the dedicated party men.

After the rally, the rival BNP men brought out a procession from the venue and paraded the main streets of the town. During the procession, they burnt the effigies of the three leaders.

Internal feud in BNP Magura district unit surfaced after formation of a committee with Kabir Murad and Ali Ahmed Biswas as president and general secretary in July 2009. Since then, aggrieved leaders and activists led by advocate Mokaddes Hossain and Iqbal Akhter Khan have been agitating demanding dissolution of the committee.

The two factions held separate councils of the district unit on November 5, 2009 and formed two committees. But the central BNP finally approved Kabir Murad and Ali Ahmed Biswas-led committee.

Two Benapole labour union leaders hurt in bomb attack

OUR CORRESPONDENT,
Benapole

Two leaders of Benapole Port Handling Workers' Union were injured in a bomb attack yesterday afternoon.

Ziaul Haque Zia, general secretary of the labour union and office secretary Sayeed Hossain were admitted to Jessore Sadar Hospital in critical condition.

The incident took place in front of the town's Islami Bank branch around 1:00pm.

Sayeed's father claimed that a rival group opposing the newly formed 31-member committee of the union might have committed the crime.

Union sources said, workers split into two feuding groups after the commerce ministry formed the committee with Golam Mostafa and Zia as its president and general secretary without holding any election.

Rival group of workers rejected the committee saying that they want to elect their leaders through vote, they said.

Following the conflict, local administration imposed Section 144 at the union office yesterday to avoid any violence.

The memorial built in honour of the people martyred on October 12 in 1971 at Boroitola (later renamed Shahid Nagar) in Kishoreganj Sadar upazila.

Boroitola mass killing day today

TAFSILUL AZIZ, Kishoreganj

Today is Boroitola mass killing day.

People of Kishoreganj including different socio-political organisations, freedom fighters and martyred families will observe the day recalling the barbaric act of the Pakistan occupation forces.

On this day in 1971, at least 365 innocent people of Bhubirchar, Gobindapur, Tilaknathpur, Karial, Kalikabari, Shehora, Dampara and Chiknirchar villages of Jashudal union in Sadar upazila were killed after brutal torture by Pakistan army and their collaborators.

The Pakistani hyenas put the innocent people in several rows near the rail line at Boroitola (present name Shahid Nagar) in Jashudal union and killed them following a rumour by the local razzakers that the villagers killed two army men.

Later, the hyenas buried some of the martyrs in a mass grave in the area and threw many other bodies into the nearby Narsunda River. Then the occupation forces arsoned and looted hundreds of houses in Boroitola area.

Boroitola was renamed as Shahid Nagar after liberation and a memorial of martyrs was built on the spot inscribing names of the victims.

The day's programme will begin with placing of wreaths at the memorial where a discussion will be held among freedom fighters, different party leaders and relatives of martyrs.

18 injured as BCL, JCD lock in clashes in Thakurgaon

OUR CORRESPONDENT,
Thakurgaon

At least 18 activists of both Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL) and Jatayatbadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) were injured in clashes at Ruhia Bazar under Thakurgaon Sadar upazila yesterday afternoon.

Of the injured, JCD activists Masud Pervez,30, Milon,27, Abul Kalam,28, and Ahasan,27, were admitted to Thakurgaon Sadar Hospital while other four belonging to BCL-Sazzad,22, Shohag,24, Sajal,18, and Sumon,18, were rushed to Atwary Health Complex.

Rest of the injured were treated at local clinics. Police and locals said, BCL and JCD activists engaged in a clash over inducing new activists into their respective parties at Ruhia Degree College at 2:00pm.

Later the activists of both parties engaged in another clash at Ruhia Bazar as a sequel to the previous incident leaving 18 people injured.

Another ferry runs aground

OUR CORRESPONDENT,
Manikganj

Ferry service disrupted on Paturia-Daulatdia route for one hour yesterday as the Ro-Ro ferry Birshreshtha Jahangir ran aground in Padma shoal with 16 vehicles.

The ferry service resumed at around 2: 00 pm after the authorities rescued the stranded ferry by the rescue boat IT-389, BIWTD officials said.

On Tuesday, Birshreshtha Hamidur Rahman ran aground in the shoal with 10 vehicles and it was salvaged after eight hours.

On Saturday the Ro-Ro ferry Khanjahan Ali ran aground in the shoal with 24 vehicles and remained stuck there for six hours.

On Friday, two ferries-- Shah Ali and Shah Poran ran aground one after another in shoals with over 40 vehicles near Daulatdia Ghat.
