STAFF CORRESPONDENT

A few student bodies yesterday demanded setting up of international crimes tribunals at district level to speed up the war crimes trial and banning Jamaat-e-Islami claiming that the party conducted crimes against humanity during the Liberation War in 1971. They placed the demands at a press conference under the banner of Chhatra Sangram Parishad, a platform of seven student bodies, at Madhur Canteen on Dhaka University (DU) campus. The Parishad includes Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL), Bangladesh Chhatra Moitri, pro-JSD Bangladesh Chhatra League, Bangladesh Chhatra Andolan, Jatiya Chhatra Oikya, Bangladesh Chhatra Samity and Jatiya Chhatra Forum. He also announced to bring out a procession today on the campus to press home their demands. BCL General Secretary Siddique Nazmul Alam, Bangladesh Chhatra Moitri President Bappaditya Basu, and pro-JSD Bangladesh Chhatra League President Hossain Ahmed Tafsir also spoke at the conference.
