Rabindra Utshab begins today

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

As observed before, this year's Junior Scholarship Certificate (JSC) examination results showed again the widening gap in the standard of education between urban and rural areas of the country.

Urban schools have again topped the list in all education boards' results.

Though authorities say schools in rural areas are doing well in terms of overall pass rates, urban schools - particularly in metropolitan cities have produced the best results over the last decade.

Urban students fare better than students in rural areas as they have access to private tuitions in addition to extensive classroom teaching, some board officials wishing anonymity say.

Rural students from poor families struggle to obtain pass marks as schools don't provide them with good

War crimes charges sent back again

Flaws in submission of charges against Mojaheed, Kamaruzzaman; tribunal accepts Quader Molla's charges

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The prosecution suffered its second setback in a week yesterday as the International Crimes Tribunal refused to consider the war crimes charges against Jamaat-e-Islami leaders Ali Ahsan Mohammad Mojaheed and Muhammad Kamaruzzaman because of flawed paper work and documentation.

The tribunal asked the chief prosecutor

Tackle use of black money

Candidates of Comilla city polls urge CEC

RAKIB HASNET SUMAN, back from Comilla

Many candidates of Comilla City Corporation polls yesterday alleged that black money is being distributed among voters by their opponents.

They were also critical of law enforcement agencies' failure to recover illegal arms in the city.

CONGRATULATIONS BRAC STUDENTS!

Congratulations to the 165,006 students and 6,719 teachers of BRAC primary schools for your outstanding performance in the Primary Completion Exam 2011. You have excelled in achieving a pass rate of 99.83%, with 70% of you receiving A+, A or A- grades.

All of you come from disadvantaged backgrounds; many of you are from ethnic minority groups and some of you cope with special needs. In the face of overwhelming challenges and limited resources and opportunities, your achievement is truly extraordinary.

We thank the government and all those who have supported in your success. You are a source of inspiration for us all.

The BRAC family is proud of you!
