ATTACK ON COPS IN LALMONIRHAT

Male members of 2 villages flee homes fearing arrest

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Lalmonirhat

At least 400 male people of two villages in Lalmonirhat Sadar upazila have fled their homes, fearing arrest and harassment following Sunday's attack on policemen on Lalmonirhat-Rangpur Road by two rival groups of villagers.

Two rival groups belonging to Hardutto and Guriyadah villages in Gokunda union of the upazila clashed over capture of a disputed land in Budhartol area on the day.

Later, both sides equipped with lethal weapons took position on the nearby Lalmonirhat-Rangpur Road and were engaged in chase and counter chase, disrupting traffic for three hours from 3:00pm. When police reached the spot and tried to clear the road, the clashing groups swooped on them, leaving a sub-inspector and two constables of Sadar police station injured.

Police used truncheons and fired tear gas shells to disperse the unruly men and brought the situation under control. Police filed a case against 18 identified and about 150 unidentified villagers the same day on incident.

charges of attacking the law enforcers and blocking the road.

As police raid continues to nab the accused, about 400 male people of the two villages have left their homes and taken shelter at their relatives' houses in different areas, said Gokunda Union Parishad Chairman Golam Mostafa.

The chairman visited the two villages on Tuesday and requested the innocent villagers to stay at their respective houses and not to get panicked during police raid.

Jamir Uddin, officer-incharge of Sadar Police Station, said they arrested Nazmul Islam, 35, one of the 18 identified accused, on Monday. "Police will not arrest or harass any of the innocent villagers. So, they can stay at their respective houses without fear," the OC added.

Contacted, Police Superintendent Habibur Rahman said he has asked law enforcers not to harass innocent villagers. "I urge them not to leave their villages in fear of police arrest," the SP said, adding that police will arrest only those who were involved in Sunday's

Police said the cantonment is about 2-km off the firing range and the bomb exploded outside the boundary wall. Soon after

Outlaw beaten to death

OUR CORRESPONDENT,

An alleged operative of an outlawed party was beaten to death at Mongolgram village in Faridpur upazila under the district on Tuesday night.

He was identified as Md Janu Mollah, 28, son of Mojai Mollah of Nagdemra village in Santhia upazila. Janu was an operative of outlawed Purba Banglar Communist Party (PBCP) Janajudhha faction, police said.

Angry mob beat him dead at about 10:00 pm on Tuesday when some outlaws demanded illegal toll from the shop owners at Mongolgram market, they said.

Officer in-charge of Faridpur police station Md Abdul Hamid said when Janu along with his accomplices demanded money, the shopkeepers besieged them and beat Janu Mollah to death in the crowded market.

Meanwhile, Janu's brother Faruk Mollah filed a case with Faridpur police station accusing 3 to 4 hundred anonymous people, the OC added.

Akhaura mayoral by-election today

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Brahmanbaria

By-election to the mayoral post of Akhaura municipality under Brahmanbaria district will be held today.

The post fell vacant following death of BNPbacked mayor NM Hasan Khan on October 14 last Six candidates are in the election race. They are ALbacked Takjil Khalifa Kajol (mike), rebel AL candidate Mainul Islam (pineapple), BNP-supported Joynal Abedeen (spectacles), rebel BNP candidate Hasib Humayun (inkpot and pen), and independent candidates Humayun Kabir (lock) and Farook Ahmed (wall clock).

As many as 20,762 voters are expected to exercise their right to franchise at 56 polling booths of 10 centres. Local administration has taken all necessary measures to ensure a free, fair election.

Contacted, Returning Officer Kazi Muhammad

Mozammel Haque said police, ansars and members of the Armed Police Battalion will be on-duty at each of the 10 polling centres. Rab personnel will patrol the municipality area while several units of the striking force will remain on alert at different points, he added.

During electioneering, district level leaders of both AL and BNP were seen working for their partybacked candidates while local leaders and workers of the two parties campaigned for the rebel candidates.

Two local BNP leaders, preferring anonymity said though several district leaders have made frequent visits to different areas of the municipality to woo voters for partybacked candidate Joynal Abedeen, upazila unit leaders and workers sought votes for rebel candidate Hasib Humayun.
