

GUN BATTLE NEAR SUNDARBANS

Three fishermen killed, nine still missing

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Khulna

Three fishermen were killed while nine others went missing in a fierce gun battle between a group of Indian fishermen and a notorious gang of Sundarbans early Saturday, according to trawler workers in Bagerhat.

The gun battle took place in the Bay of Bengal, about 70 nautical miles away from the east wing of the Sundarbans Forest Division.

The Indian fishermen rescued five Bangladeshi fishermen from a fishing trawler that capsized at the time of gun fight. These five fishermen were earlier held hostage by the members of Jihad Bahini for demanding ransom.

The five were later taken to Indian part of the Sundarbans, sources said.

Neither the dead nor anyone of nine missing fishermen are yet to be identified, said Abdul Mannan, president of Bagerhat District Fishing Trawler Workers' Union.

However, three of five Bangladeshi fishermen kidnapped by Indians were identified as Mostafa and Noor Islam of Mathbaria upazila of Pirojpur district and Zakir Khan of Sharankhola upazila of Bagerhat district, said Abul Hossain, President of Sharankhola unit of Jatiya Matshajibi Samity.

UP member murdered

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Sylhet

Police recovered the bloodstained body of a union parishad (UP) member from a beel (a large water body) beside Noluta Tea Garden in Chunarughat upazila of Habiganj district yesterday. The victim, Sonai Miah, 40, is a member of Gazipur union parishad. He had a business at a local market. Quoting family members, Sayed Mahbubur Rahman, officer in-charge of Chunarughat police station, said Sonai went missing since he left the market for his residence on Saturday at about 10:00pm. Later, locals found the body floating on the water body at around 1:00pm and informed the police. The law enforcers then recovered the body and sent it to Habiganj Sadar Hospital morgue for autopsy. Rivals might have killed the UP member over previous enmity, the OC added.

Girl commits 'suicide'

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Satkhira

A teenage girl allegedly committed suicide over a family feud at Kharibila village in Sadar upazila on Saturday night. The dead was identified as Hasina Khatun, 17, daughter of Sayed Ali Sardar of the village. Aslam Khan, officer in-charge of Sadar police station, said Hasina quarreled with her stepmother at about 11:30pm and killed herself by hanging from the beam of her room. On information, police recovered the body from the spot and sent it to hospital morgue for autopsy, the OC added.

Elderly woman burnt alive

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Thakurgaon

An elderly woman was burnt to death as a fire broke out at a house at Shibnathpukur village in Ranishangkoil upazila on Saturday evening. The deceased was identified as Afula Begum, 75, wife of late Asgar Ali of the village. She had been suffering from paralysis for long. Fire service sources said the fire originated from an oil lamp at the house of Shahid Ali, son of the victim, at about 6:15pm and soon engulfed the adjoining houses. Afula was burnt alive as she could not come out of the house due to her illness. On information, firefighters from Baliadangi upazila headquarters rushed in and extinguished the blaze. They also recovered the charred body of Afula.

No trace of college girl ten days into abduction

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Patuakhali

Police are yet to rescue a newly married college girl ten days into her abduction.

The 18-year-old girl, a first year student of Jalal Uddin College at Kalapara town, was kidnapped by a gang when she was going to college on January 19.

Father of the girl told this correspondent that his daughter was going to college at about 10am. When she reached Anantapara are a, a gang of 6/7, led by Shihab Uddin, son of Syed Ali Dalal of Kuakata, along with accomplices waylaid her in three motorbikes. They forcibly kidnapped the girl and left for an unknown destination, he said.

He filed a case with Kalapara upazila judicial magistrate court on January 22 and the court asked the OC of Kalapara police station to file a regular case.

The girl was married on November 28, only 21 days ahead of the abduction, family sources said.

Earlier, Shihab gave threat to the girl and her family for turning down his proposal, they said.

Contacted, Ishaq Ali, OC at Kalapara police station said police were trying their best to rescue the girl and arrest the culprits.

All of them are on the run, he added.

SARMINA MURDER CASE Meanwhile, the woman who was killed allegedly by her co-wife recently at Baragopaldee village under Dashmina upazila was identified as Sarmina, daughter of Mostafa Fakir of Bandabari village under Kotalipara upazila of Gopalganj district.

Police recovered the body of Sarmina from a crop field in the village on January 12.

A police team from Dashmina police station, led by OC Habibur Rahman, arrested the alleged killer Khalilur Rahman from Dashmina launch terminal and co-wife Nazma of Kotalipara upazila on Saturday.

Khalil gave confessional statement to the court on Sunday morning.

Police sent both arrestees to the court at about 11am and sought remand for five days. However, the court issued two days remand for Nazma.

According to the statements of the arrestees and police, Sarmina was working at a garment factory in Dhaka city. She had affair with another worker Omar Ali of Jobsen village under Agoiljhara upazila in Barisal district.

Omar Ali married Nazma in Gopalganj three years back. Later he married Sarmina privately and were living together in Dhaka.

Khalilur Rahman, who worked with Omar Ali, informed the matter to Nazma.

At a stage, Nazma planned to kill her co-wife Sarmina and hired Khalilur for Tk 20,000.

As per the plan, Khalil brought Sarmina to Barisal from Dhaka in the name of sending her to husband's house at Agoiljhara on January 10 and killed her on the way to Dasmina and dumped the body in a crop field.
