(Citizen Action for Results, Transparency and Accountability)
Call for Concept Note
The Manusher Jonno Foundation (MJF) invites qualified civil society organizations (CSOs) to participate in a unique independent third party monitoring of selected World Bank financed projects designed to enhance the development impact, sustainability and local ownership of outcomes. This Program, called Citizen Action for Results, Transparency and Accountability (CARTA), is funded through the Japanese Social Development Fund (JSDF) and implemented in collaboration with the Partnership for Transparency Fund (PTF), World Bank, and local partners in Nepal and Bangladesh. MJF serves as the lead partner in Bangladesh.
For more information and application instructions, please visit the MJF website <http://www.manusher.org/> to review the following documents: CARTA Program Description; b) Eligibility criteria and application procedures; c) Terms of Reference (TOR) for application for each specific WB project selected for this Program; and, d) a template for the Concept Note, the first stage in applying for a sub-grant. Interested CSOs are requested to submit concept notes with supporting documents addressed to the Executive Director, Manusher Jonno Foundation by the date specified in the TOR available on the website. On envelop, please mention CARTA Program. Qualifying CSOs will be asked to submit a full proposal. For more information visit <http://www.manusher.org/> or email to carta@manusher.org.
*Note: there may be TORs for additional WB Projects for this program and each TOR will mention the deadline for concept note submission.
