COMMUNITY LEGAL SERVICES

A Project of the Department for International Development (DFID) and Implemented by Maxwell Stamp PLC, the British Council and the Center for Effective Dispute Resolution

REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS

The Community Legal Services (CLS) Project aims to provide financial support to legal service NGOs in Bangladesh to promote community legal services, such as mediation, legal aid, awareness programs and the like in poor and marginalized communities of the country. CLS is one of three programs under the Safety and Justice Program, which also includes the Police Reform Program-2 and the Justice Sector Strategic Fund.

CLS is conducting a baseline study of the extent, reach and scope of legal service NGOs in the country, in order to update information on the matter and to serve as a basis for the Geographic Expansion Plan that will determine to a great extent the work of the project in the next five years.

CLS is inviting research institutions, schools, NGOs and other firms to submit a proposal for the conduct of the baseline study. The details of the request for a proposal, as well as the terms of reference are available from the Maxwell Stamp Ltd. office through email only. Please send an email expressing your interest to procure the said documents to the following person: Abdullah-Al-Maruf, Office Manager, CLS

amaruf@maxwellstamp.com

Interested institutions are expected to submit a proposal in hard copy no later than Sunday, April 1, 2012 at 4PM at the Maxwell Stamp Ltd. office at House 333, Road 113, Gulshan, Dhaka, 1212.
