JOURNO COUPLE MURDER

Rab too going at snail's pace

Viscera report done 10 days ago, collected only yesterday

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The viscera report of slain journalist couple Sagar Sarowar and Meherun Runi was prepared at least 10 days ago, but the Rapid Action Battalion collected it only yesterday.

According to sources in the forensic medicine department of Dhaka Medical College, the report found that no sedative, poison or any chemical was used in killing the duo.

After the report from Mohakhali Chemical Laboratory reached the medical college 10 days ago, the authorities contacted the Rab several times.

Finally, a representative of the battalion received it from the department around 10:30am yesterday, an official of the forensic department said.

Sagar, news editor of the TV channel Maasranga, and

4 Destiny top shots quizzed

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The Anti-Corruption Commission yesterday quizzed four top officials of Destiny Group, including its chairman Rafiqul Amin, over various irregularities in the multilevel company.

The outcome of the grilling, however, could not immediately be known.

The seven-hour interrogation that began at 10:00am took place at the commission's Segunbagicha office in the capital.

Following the quizzing that ended at 6:30pm, ACC Chairman Ghulam Rahman said the commission would protect the interests of the investors of the MLM company.

In mid-April, the anti-graft watchdog opened an investigation into financial anomalies, including illegal banking, by the company and its sister concerns.

The ACC chief, however, could not say

PM for fighting poverty jointly

Speaks at US-Islamic World Forum 2012 in Doha

UNB, Doha

Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina has called for joint efforts of all states to face the twin challenges of poverty and terrorism to secure global peace and harmony for future generations.

Terming poverty a major "challenge of change" in the region, Hasina said she believes that poverty is the number one common enemy as it provides breeding ground of terrorism.

The premier made the remarks in her keynote speech at the gala dinner of 'US-Islamic World Forum' 2012 held at

BILL PASSED

PM, ministers under tax net

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Parliament yesterday passed two bills repealing provisions that exempted the prime minister, ministers, state ministers, and deputy ministers from paying taxes on their salaries for over three decades.

Now, their salaries from July 1 last year would be taxable.

On February 29, two other bills were passed scrapping "discriminatory" provisions from two laws that exempted the Speaker, deputy speaker and MPs from paying taxes on their remunerations.

The ruling Awami League in its manifesto, amended in July, 2009, had stated that there would be no "discriminatory" laws between lawmaker and citizens of Bangladesh.

CONTAINER TRAIN DERAILS

Rail link with Ctg snapped for 17 hrs

OUR CORRESPONDENT, CTG

Rail communication between Chittagong and other parts of the country resumed yesterday evening after about a 17-hour-long disruption caused by derailment of four bogies of a container train.

A Dhaka-bound train from Chittagong veered off the course at Jangalia near Moynamati Railway Station in Comilla and ploughed into another tracks around 1:30am, damaging both lines.

Hundreds of people bound for

Dhaka, Sylhet and other destinations had faced untold sufferings at Chittagong Railway Station as schedules of six train services were cancelled and one was delayed.

Zakir Hossain, divisional transportation officer (DTO) of railway, told The Daily Star "Train communication on the route resumed at 6:00pm after two relief trains from Akhaura and Laksham reached the spot, cleared the lines and repaired the damaged tracks."

Sukumar Bhoumik, divisional
