A mobile court here on Saturday sentenced a college student to three months' imprisonment for harassing a college girl. The convict was identified as Rabiul Sheikh, a student of Baliakandi Degree College and son of Abdul Majid of Samshapur village in Baliakandi upazila. Locals said Rabiul used to sexually harass the girl of the same college since long. On Saturday, he waylaid the girl on her way to the college at about 11am. Hearing her cry for help, college students and teachers rushed to the spot, caught Rabiul and handed over him to police.

Housewife murdered

A CORRESPONDENT, Khulna

A pregnant housewife was beaten to death allegedly by her husband and in-laws for dowry in village Barni in Dumuria upazila in the district on Friday night. The victim was identified as Joyosri Biswas, 24, daughter of Asit Mallik of Krishna Nagar village of the same upazila. Police quoting family members said, Joyosri was married off to Mithu Biswas, 32, son of Agar Biswas, three years back. Since the marriage, Mithu and his family members used to torture her for dowry. On the fateful night, an altercation ensued over the issue. Angered by her refusal to bring Tk 50,000 from her father, they beat her up mercilessly, leaving her dead on the spot.

HUMAN CHAIN IN DINAJPUR Indigenous people of plain land place 3-pt demand

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Dinajpur

The ethnic people yesterday formed a human chain in front of deputy commissioner's office to press home their three-point demand, including formation of a separate land commission for them.

Several hundred people from different upazilas of Dinajpur, Thakurgaon and Panchagarh districts took part in the programme organised by Dinajpur unit of Jatiya Adivasi Parishad (JAP).

The other demands include freeing their lands from encroachers and halting drive to evict them from their ancestral land in the name of afforestation.

Speakers at the programme urged the government to form a separate land commission for indigenous people of plain land immediately.

Robbers posing as policemen loot 6 Manikganj houses

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Manikganj

Robbers posing as policemen looted valuables from six houses at Manikdah village in Singair upazila early yesterday.

Locals and victims said, 10-15 robbers in the guise of policemen entered the house of Monir Hossain at around 1:00am.

They tied up the hands, legs and mouths of the members of the house and beat them up mercilessly.

Then they looted cash Tk 40, 000 and 5 tolas gold ornaments by breaking the almirah.

The robbers also entered the house of Monser Ali at around 2:30am and looted cash Tk 55, 000, more than two tolas gold ornaments, two mobile sets and other goods from the house.

In the guise of policemen, the robbers also looted cash Tk 1, 36,000 and 5 tolas of gold ornaments from the nearby house of Bohor Ali.

The robbers then took away cash Tk 70, 000 and two mobile sets and other goods from the houses of Sheikh Asandi at around 3:00am.

Then they looted houses of Jamal Hossain and Manwar Hossain.

Officer in-charge (OC) of Singair Police Station, Safiqul Islam, however, said that there was no allegation of robbery in the area.

"Thieves entered a house but they fled the scene after the villagers chased them" the OC said.

In Khulna, criminals posing as policemen took away a motorbike from Shikder Kamrul Hasan Kochi, assistant professor of Kachua Degree College in Bagerhat and also president of Kachua upazila unit Jubo League, on Saturday night near Rupsha Bridge on Khulna-Dhaka highway, reports a correspondent.

The victim alleged that 6 to 7 people, wearing police uniform, waylaid him and beat him up mercilessly at about 8pm.

Later, they left the place on a microbus along with his motorbike.
