MATERNAL HEALTH in CHITTAGONG HILL TRACTS

Cordaid

The Catholic Organization for Relief and Development Aid (Cordaid) is a Dutch development agency operating worldwide. Cordaid fights poverty, exclusion and stands up for the world's poorest and most marginalized communities. One of the focus areas is health and care for all.

Within the health area, Cordaid prioritizes women's health. Women's health comprises of all health related issues, from child to adolescent to older women. Within women's health, maternal health has special attention, as formulated within Millennium Development Goal 5.

Cordaid is going to intensify her maternal health programmes in Chittagong Hill Tracts in the coming years. Therefore, interested parties are invited to submit a proposal for the implementation of a two years project on maternal health, with the following objectives.

- To increase in family planning methods and referrals
- To increase women using health care facilities for skilled delivery and reproductive health care on time
- To improve quantity or quality of reproductive health services

Cordaid is looking for new, innovative sustainable projects that are taking into account the influence of cultural habits and attitudes towards family planning, pregnancy and delivery. The projects can focus on the whole continuum of care, but preferably including the adolescent pre-pregnancy phase. Collaboration between different sectors is encouraged.

Please visit the website or contact us through e-mail to request for the complete Call for Proposals.

The submission date is 15th of July 2012.
