Farah Ruma @ DS Café

Following her success at Lux Anandabichitra Photoshundori, Farah Ruma has paved a road to success with her beauty and talent. Her first taste of popularity came after she appeared opposite Afzal Hossain in the tele-film "Shako" -- directed by Afzal Hossain himself. Her diary is filled with shooting schedules, while she is also busy with her first silver screen appearance. Although modelling gigs remain irregular, she is a regular host on TV shows. Recently Farah Ruma came to DS Café to talk to her fans over the phone: Runa, Savar: How did your journey in the media begin? Farah Ruma: I started with modelling, but later became busy with acting. People know me more as an actress now. Lony, Banani, Dhaka: Do you like cooking and do you like Indian food?

Farah Ruma: I love cooking. When I'm free or at home, I cook. I don't like Indian food much but love Italian, Thai or Chinese cuisines.

Rana, Chittagong: Who is your favourite personality? Farah Ruma: Mother Teresa.

Farah Ruma: Thank you for watching "Mayanigom" from so far away. Please watch more of our dramas. The story of the drama surrounds a lower-middle income family. I'm getting a lot of responses since it began airing. Mahfuz Ahmed is acting opposite me; the director is Golam Mostafa Shimul.

Sajidul Mahmud, Residential College, Dhaka: What projects are you doing now?

Farah Ruma: I'm currently busy with

Udichi's Barsha Utshab held in Thakurgaon

QUAMRUL ISLAM RUBAIYAT, Thakurgaon

District unit of Udichi Shilpi Goshthi organised 'Barsha Utshab' at Martyred Memorial premises in Thakurgaon municipality on Monday evening.

Though the programme was shifted to Thakurgaon Press Club auditorium just after the rendition of the first song due to a sudden shower, that only added to the ambience of the monsoon.

The programme included renditions of monsoon themed songs of Tagore, Nazrul, modern and folk. The soiree began with a choral song "Bajro Manik Deve Gatha Ashar Tomar Mala". Later, the cultural team of Udichi rendered several Nazrul and folk songs. Sucharita Dev led the cultural team while other members were Tonni, Raisa, Oishi, Oroni, Mati, Mou and Biswadip.

The other performers who gave solo performances were Tusher Kanti Battacharia, Jotish Kumer Barman and Moushumi Bishakha Mohonta. Several members of Udichi recited poems at the Following the Barsha Utshab, a discussion was held. The discussants were of the view that while writers and poets have written on seasons, it was Rabindranath who first presented nature beautifully in his songs and gave a true picture of the country's six seasons, especially the monsoon.

The speakers appreciated the organisers for taking the initiative to help promote our heritage and culture among the younger generation.

Among others, cultural personality Prottush Kumer Chatarji; Lecturer of Bangla Department of Abul Hossain College, Golam Sarwar Samrat; district sports officer Mohiuddin Ahmed; Anupom Moni and district unit general secretary of Udichi Komol Roy, delivered speeches at the discussion.

Setara Begum, president, District Unit of Udichi presided over the ceremony.

NATIONAL THEATRE FEST ON LIBERATION WAR

A scene from "Ekti Shurjer Jonno".

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

As part of the ongoing "National Theatre Festival on the Liberation War", seven plays were staged at the Bangladesh Shilpakala Academy, on July 12. Rangamati Government College staged "Ekti Shurjer Jonno" at the Studio Theatre Hall, while Chittagong Shilpakala Academy highlighted the mass killing that happened in the adjacent area of Foy's Lake through performance and multimedia presentation at the Experimental Theatre

Arranged by Bangladesh Shilpakala Academy, in association the Bangladesh Group Theatre Federation, the fortnight-long festival will end today.

Ranjit Kumar Mitra was the director of the Rangamati play. The play highlighted bravery of the freedom fighters belonging to indigenous commuPHOTO COURTESY: SHILPAKALA ACADEMY

Chittagong Shilpakala Academy's "Badhyabhumi Foy's Lake" was a unique presentation, considering rest of the productions at the festival. It saw performances based on interviews and eyewitness accounts of the mass killing. The interviews were screened on the backdrop as performers demonstrated the brutality on stage. The play was directed by Moslemuddin Shikdar. Among other plays, Sunamganj Government Collage staged "Bangla Ma-er Chhele" at the National Theatre Hall. The play was directed by Mohammad Jalaluddin. Today, the last day of the festival, five plays will be staged at four venues. Chandpur Shilpakala Academy will stage "Ek Aasman Khoab" at the National Theatre Hall, while Natyam, Barisal will stage "Tilak" at the Experimental Theatre Hall. The festival is a part of Shilpakala Academy's yearlong activities to celebration the 40th anniversary of
