Flooding damages early variety aman paddy

Farmers seek help to replant seedlings

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Lalmonirhat

Early variety aman paddy on about 1500 bighas of land at different villages of five upazilas has been damaged due to the recent flooding.

The affected farmers sought financial support from the government for replanting seedlings of the paddy on their lands.

Mozammel Haque, 48, a farmer of Sindurna village in Hatibandha upazila, said that the flood damaged the crop on his three bighas of land.

"Now I have no more seedlings left for replanting", he said.

Saher Ali, 55, another farmer of the village, said aman paddy on his two bighas land submerged by the floodwater has also been damaged.

"The advanced variety of the paddy on my four bighas of land went under water due to early flooding this year", said Jafor Ali, 45, of Gobordhon village in Aditmari upazila who borrowed money from a local NGO taking lease of the land.

"How will I repay the loan now?", he posed. Didarul Islam, 42,

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Dinajpur

The land subsidence victims of 10 villages around the Barapukuria coal mine are likely to get full compensation package money before the coming Eid-ul-Fitr festival.

Advocate Mostafizur Rahman, State Minister for Land and lawmaker of Dinajpur-5 constituency (Parbatipur-Phulbari upazila), assured this to the villagers yesterday.

He was holding a meeting at the mine's conference room with the leaders of Jibon O Shampad Rakkha Committee while several hundred affected villagers were present near the venue.

The villagers started a sit-in programme on June 18 demanding the remaining amount of the package money.

On July 9, the land subsidence victims brought out a protest procession and took position in front of mine gate. Police charged baton, used tear gas shells and fired bullets from shot guns, leaving 20 villagers wounded.

Later, following an intervention by the state minister for land, the affected villagers postponed the agitation till yesterday.
