BUET CRISIS No hope of early solution

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The Buettowon crisis seems to be lingering as the agitating teachers remain firm on their demand for removal of the vice chancellor and pro-vice chancellor.

As part of its effort to quell the crisis, the education ministry on Sunday sent two mediators--Syed Abul Maksud and Col

Chevron to invest $500m at Bibiyana

May add 300mmcf daily gas from 2014, not enough for gas crisis solution

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

US oil company Chevron yesterday announced it is ready to supply another 300 million cubic feet daily (mmcf) gas from Bibiyana field from 2014, shifting from its earlier proposal to supply 940 mmcf.

The announcement waters down the government's hope of a solution to an acute gas crisis that has affected home burners to power plants. It would, however, ease the persisting crisis.

Chevron President Geoff Strong announced at an event in the capital that the company would invest over $500 million to expand the production capacity of Bibiyana natural gas field in Sylhet.

This investment will be recovered from

Witness tells court in 10-truck arms haul case

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Ctg

Former director of National Security Intelligence Maj (retd) Liakat Hossain identified himself as an Ulfa leader during the ten-truck arms haul in Chittagong on April 2, 2004.

Helal Uddin, a former sergeant of Koiler Depot police outpost and also prosecution witness in the sensational arms haul cases, gave the information to a court while submitting his deposition yesterday.

He said Maj Liakat identified himself as Ulfa (United Liberation Front of Assam) leader Abul Hossain and he

JATRABARI ROAD DCC official draws flak from locals

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The Dhaka South City Corporation (DSCC) administrator was severely rebuked by transport workers and local people at Jatrabari in the capital yesterday while he was accompanying the communications minister to check the condition of roads.

Such a situation ensued after a Chittagong-bound luxury bus of Saudia Paribahan got one of its front wheels stuck in an earth-filled ditch right before DSCC reported Malaysian newspaper The Star on Sunday.

However, the agent recently demanded additional RM 1,200 and refused to hand over their passports if its demand is not met, said Sirajul Haque Kazi, a victim at Alor Setar in Malaysia's northwestern state of Kedah.

Sirajul said they could not afford to pay

AFP, New Delhi

A massive power cut blacked out northern India yesterday, leaving more than 300 million people without power, shutting down water plants and stranding hundreds of trains in the worst outage in a decade.

Power Minister Sushilkumar Shinde said the entire northern grid collapsed for six hours shortly after 2:00am (2030 GMT Sunday), causing chaos in nine states including the capital New Delhi.

JOB REGULARISATION IN MALAYSIA 400 workers cheated by manpower agent

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Around 400 Bangladeshi workers in Malaysia were allegedly defrauded by an employment agent in the job regularisation process.

The victims said as per an agreement, they paid Malaysian Ringgit (RM) 3,000 (Tk 90,000) each to an agent earlier this year and were supposed to pay RM 500 more after securing work permits,
