Fish trader murdered

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Patuakhali

A fish trader was killed allegedly by his rival over a piece of disputed land in Dumki upazila early on Tuesday. The deceased was identified as Jalil Fakir, 45, of Chargarabdi village. There was a longstanding conflict between Jalil and his neighbour Rafiq Gazi over the land. Police said a gang allegedly led by Rafiq waylaid Jalil at around 2:00am when he was going to the district town to buy fish. They stabbed him mercilessly and gauged out his left eye near Chargarabdi launch terminal, leaving him critically injured. Later Jalil died at the upazila health complex.

Five houses gutted

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Kurigram

Five houses of a family were gutted in a fire incident at Char Arajipalashbari village of Halokhana union under Kurigram Sadar upazila on Tuesday night. Locals said the fire originated from a mosquito-coil in the cowshed of Mohammad Ali at about 11:30pm and quickly spread to the adjoining houses. The fire destroyed his five houses and goods and valuables within 20 minutes.

2 held with stolen iron rods

A CORRESPONDENT, Khulna

Plainclothes police arrested two people and seized 1,800 kgs of stolen iron rods from a trawler at Balakaghat in the city on Tuesday. The arrestees were identified as Mohammad Siddique, 45, and Kalam, 40, of Deyara village in Rupsha upazila. DB police said, on secret information, they raided the terminal at Bhairab River at Kalibari at about 11am and recovered the stolen iron rods worth over Tk one lakh from the trawler. Later, the team arrested two people from the trawler. The rods were stolen from Madaripur, police said.

Missing man found dead

UNB, Noakhali

A shopkeeper who went 'missing' in Begumganj upazila on July 29 was found dead on Tuesday. Police recovered the body of Sohrab Hossain, son of late Kabir Hossain of Baroitana village in the upazila, from a ditch at the village around noon. He had a tea stall at local Bangla Bazar. Police said a neighbour called Sohrab out of his house in the small hours of July 29. Since then, he remained missing. A villager saw the body of Sohrab while collecting hyacinth from the ditch around noon and informed police.

Farmer killed in Meherpur

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Kushtia

Criminals killed an elderly farmer at Kola village in Sadar upazila of Meherpur on Tuesday night. The dead was identified as Sader Ali alias Sedu Mia, 65, son of late Sobed Ali of the village. Officer in-charge (OC) of Meherpur Sadar police station Jahangir Alam said, a gang of about 4/5 attacked Sedu when he was talking to some people in front of his house at about 10:30pm. The criminals stabbed Sedu severely and blasted two bombs while fleeing the scene.

Housewife 'commits suicide'

UNB, Benapole, Jessore

A housewife allegedly committed suicide following a family feud at Aminpur village in Monirampur upazila of Jessore district early yesterday. The deceased was identified as Beauty Begum, 30, wife of Jahangir Hossain of the village. Police said Beauty demanded Tk 3000 from her husband for buying a sari for Eid which he refused on Tuesday night. Angered by the refusal, Beauty hanged herself from the ceiling of her bedroom late at night. Later, she was rushed to Jessore General Hospital where she died early in the morning. A UD case was filed in this connection.

Labourers at fertiliser association's godown in Lalmonirhat resume work after calling off their indefinite strike yesterday. They went on strike on Saturday demanding 'a fair wage'.

Fertiliser godown workers in Lalmonirhat call off strike

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Lalmonirhat

Workers at Bangladesh Fertiliser Association (BFA) godown at Mohendro Nagar village in Sadar upazila yesterday withdrew their indefinite strike after the authorities agreed to meet their demand.

Loading and unloading of fertilizers resumed at the godown after the fruitful talks.

Abdul Hakim, president of district Fertilizer Dealer Association, said the workers called the strike on Saturday, demanding a fair wage system.

"The workers were paid fifty paisa for loading and unloading of each sack of fertiliser instead of Tk one by the contractor"

Monzur Alam, 55, who has been working at the godown for the last 20 years, said "The contractor is misappropriating 50 percent of our wage for long".

The workers' leader Kashem Ali said, the strike was called off following a fruitful meeting between the association leaders and the authorities.

"We always wanted to talk with the godown authorities on wage issue instead of the contractor", he said.

Hanif Mia, executive engineer of Bangladesh Chemical Industries Corporation (BCIC) and in-charge of the godown, said we have already cancelled the deal with the contractor.

Around 45 workers load and unload some 20,000 sacks of fertiliser at the warehouse everyday, said BFA official sources.

Gaibandha education office besieged

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Gaibandha

Locals and teachers of two educational institutions in Fulchhari upazila on Tuesday besieged the district education office, demanding refund of 'extra fees' taken for enrolment of teachers and employees in the list of monthly payment order (MPO).

The protesters also sought approval of the two newly formed managing committees.

At on stage, they locked in an altercation with the education officer Azahar Ali attempted to manhandle him, witnesses said.

On information, police rushed in and rescued him from the wrath of the agitators.

Locals alleged that the education officer took 'bribe' for approval of the newly formed managing committee at Sadullapur Pilot High School and governing body of Chandia Mohila College. He also promised to arrange teachers' MPO facilities.

Despite receiving money, the education officer was not intentionally enrolling the teachers and employees in the list of MPO, they said.

Refuting the allegations of taking bribe, the education officer said that the matter would be resolved soon as per rules and procedures.

Neighbours beat man dead for nothing

UNB, Kushtia

A man was beaten to death and his wife injured by their neighbours over a trivial matter at Chandai village in Kumarkhali upazila Tuesday morning.

The deceased was identified as Abu Sayeed, 50, of the village.

Police said an altercation ensued between Sayeed and his neighbour Selim at about 6am in the area as Sayeed's ducks entered to Selim's house.

At one stage, Selim and his supporter Shamser beat up Sayeed and his wife Selina Khatun, 35, mercilessly, leaving them seriously injured.

Later, Sayeed died on the way to Kushtia General Hospital.

Selim and Shamser went into hiding after the incident.

On information, police recovered the body and sent it to hospital morgue for autopsy.

A case was filed in this connection.

Habiganj Jubo Dal, JCD men acquitted

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Sylhet

A Habiganj court yesterday acquitted 34 Jubo Dal and JCD men in a case filed under the Speedy Trial Act on April 21.

A member of Habiganj Shilpakala Academy filed the case, accusing the 34 activists of BNP's youth and student fronts of vandalising public property on the day.

District Jubo Dal President Azizur Rahman Kajol, district JCD Convener Tajul Islam Chowdhury, Joint Secretary Syed Mushfique Ahmed and Habiganj pourasava (municipality) councillor Abdul Awal Majnu were among the accused.

In the case statement, the complainant said the accused took out a procession in the town on April 21 to mount pressure on the government to return "missing" BNP central leader Ilias Ali.

At one stage, the processionists locked in a clash with police and vandalised Shilpakala Academy building and other public offices in the town, the complainant stated.

Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate Muslehuddin passed the order as the prosecution failed to prove the involvement of Jubo Dal and JCD men in the act of vandalism.

Trucker killed while trying to flee with phensidyl

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Jessore

A trucker was killed in a road accident when he along with his truck, carrying phensidyl, tried to flee a Rab check post in Laujani area of Sadar upazila on Tuesday.

Major Arif, in-charge of Rab-6, said acting on a tip-off, a team led by ASP Sattaki Kabiraj stopped the truck at the check post on Jessore-Benapole road at around 7:00am and asked its driver to get down.

At one stage, the driver tried to flee the scene. But the truck collided head-on with a bus as he lost control over the steering.

Critically injured bus driver and the trucker were rushed to Jessore Medical College and Hospital where the trucker succumbed after sometime.

The elite force also recovered 105 phensidyl from the truck, said the major.
