Woman kills husband

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Pabna

A man was killed allegedly by his wife at Bhojendrapur village in sadar upazila early Sunday over a family feud. Police later arrested the housewife. Victim Shipon Hossain, 35, was son of Tofazzal Hossain of the village. Police and locals said Shipon and his wife Champa Khatun locked in an altercation at about 12.30am on Sunday. At a stage, Champa stabbed her husband with sharp weapons leaving him dead on the spot. Officer in-charge of Pabna Sadar police station Md. Afzal Hossain said, Shipon often locked in quarrels as he had two wives.

10 injured in stampede

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Thakurgaon

At least 10 women were injured in a stampede at the house of Water Resources Minister Ramesh Chandra Sen at College Para in the municipality area on Saturday. Witnesses and police said, the incident occurred in the afternoon when around 300 poor women of the adjacent areas gathered in front of the house of the minister for monetary help ahead of Eid. Of the injured, police took five women to Thakurgaon Sadar Hospital.

Fake ASP arrested

UNB, Faridpur

A fake assistant police superintendent (ASP) was arrested at Kamargram village in Boalmari upazila on Tuesday night. The arrestee was identified as Tapan Chaki of the village. Police said, identifying himself as an ASP of the Special Branch of Police, Tapan rebuked Ruhul Amin, the officer in-charge of Boalmari police station, a few days ago over mobile phone and ordered him to release a recently seized motorbike. Later, the OC lodged a general diary in this connection. After tracking the mobile phone of Tapan, police raided the village at night and arrested him. A fake identity card of ASP was recovered from his possession.

Youth murdered

UNB, Mymensingh

Police recovered the body of a young man from a pond in Nandail upazila on Tuesday night. The victim was identified as Zahirul Mia, 26, son of Ekram Hossain Bhuiyan of Purbo Dolilla village in the upazila. Police said locals spotted the body of Zahirul floating in the pond of Shah Newaz Taffir Alia Madrasa at Purbo Dolilla at about 9 pm and informed police. Later, the law enforcers recovered the body, which bore injury marks in the head, and sent it to hospital morgue for autopsy. Police said Zahirul, a rice-mill trader, might have been killed by rivals following a previous enmity.

Reception to elderly people

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Manikganj

Two hundred and seventy elderly people were accorded reception here on Tuesday, a day after the Eid day. Al-Insaf Samaj Kalyan Parishad, a local organisation, organised the function at Roghunathpur village under Shibalaya upazila. All of them were honoured and presented gifts. The elderly people expressed their happiness for showing respect to them. They said that today's society was almost forgetting the contribution and value of senior citizens. The programme was rounded up with a cultural function.

Criminals vandalised a clinic owned by Patuakhali mayor Dr Shafiqul Islam and beat up its director on Tuesday night.

Patuakhali mayor's clinic vandalised, 5 injured

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Patuakhali

Criminals vandalised a clinic and injured five people including a director of the clinic owned by Patuakhali municipality Mayor Dr Shafiqul Islam on Tuesday midnight.

With serious injuries, the director, Jahirul Haque Khokon was admitted to Barisal Sher-E-Bangla Medical College Hospital from where doctors referred him to Dhaka Medical College Hospital for better treatment yesterday afternoon.

Four other injured took primary treatment at the clinic.

"At about 12:30am a gang of around 20 people attacked the clinic and started searching for director Jahirul Haque Khokon. They found him on the third floor where he was sleeping. The criminals beat him up and hit him with a brickbat on the head, making him badly injured," said Md Siddiqur Rahman, manager of the clinic.

"The attackers also broke the windowpanes of the reception room of the clinic. I could not identify them," he said.

Jahirul Haque Khokon told this correspondent over cell phone that a gang led by the youngest son of a state minister made the attack on the clinic and injured him.

On condition of anonymity, a few eyewitnesses also supported Jahirul's statement.

This correspondent failed to communicate with the alleged leader of the attacker gang as his cell phone was found off.

Dr Shafiqul Islam, mayor of Patuakhali municipality, who is now staying in Dhaka, said his political rivals might have made the attack on his clinic.

Md Monirul Islam, officer in charge of Patuakhali police station, said, "We do not know who attacked the clinic. Nobody has submitted any written complaint in this regard. If anybody files a case over the matter we will take lawful action."

Criminals kill schoolboy 6 weeks after abduction

UNB, Gopalganj

A schoolboy, kidnapped in Kashiani upazila about one and a half months ago, has been murdered by the criminals.

Victim Mahfuz, 9, was a Class III student at a local kindergarten and son of Italy expatriate Rezaul Haque of Barasur village in the upazila.

Locals said, Mahfuz went missing after he had gone to local mosque on the night of Shab-e-Barat to say prayers on July 5.

Police arrested Billal Sheikh, Shamim Sheikh and Chittai of nearby Mukundapur village, following a case filed after the incident.

Some children of the village spotted the body of Mahfuz at an orchard near the house of Rezaul on Tuesday morning and informed his family members.

The family members rushed Mahfuz to Kashiani upazila health complex where doctors declared him dead.

The doctors said Mahfuz was killed hours ago, sometime on Monday night.

There were marks of burn injuries in different parts of the body, including the eyelids.

The family members alleged that local extortionists Billal, Shamim and Chittai had kidnapped the schoolboy and killed him.

Police arrested four others on Tuesday in connection with the killing of Mahfuz.

Although Lawachhara still attracts a large number of visitors, recovery of four bodies from the reserve forest in Srimongal of Moulvibazar district in the last one year may turn into a deterrent to them as security men often leave the place after dusk.

Narsingdi trader shot dead

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Narsingdi

Criminals on Tuesday night shot dead a local trader at Dudhpatti in the district town.

Victim Manjur Rahman, 32, was son of late Siraj Ali of Muradnagar upazila of Comilla district and son-in-law of the town's businessman Idris Mia.

Manjur, a paints and chemical trader, had been living at the house of his father-in-law at Purbo Duttapra in the district town.

Officer in-charge of Sadar Model Police Station Asaduzzaman said, a gang opened fire on Manjur while he was standing in front of his business house at about 11pm.

Hit by three bullets -- one in the chest and two in neck, Manjur was rushed to Narsingdi Sadar Hospital where doctors declared him dead.

Police later sent the body to hospital morgue for autopsy.

Victim's wife Taslima Begum said Manjur, like every other day, went out of his house after lunch. She could not assume any reason behind the killing.

The OC said the criminals were probably known to Manjur. They might have killed him after failing to realise illegal toll from him.

4 Hizb-ut Tawhid men held

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Lalmonirhat

Four Hizb-ut Tawhid militants were arrested while distributing anti-government leaflets at Teesta railway station in Sadar upazila on Monday night.

About 200 leaflets were seized from their possession, police said. The arrestees were produced in the court on Tuesday and the court sent them to the jail.

The four were identified as Mizabur Rahman, 28, son of Rais Uddin, Sujon Islam, 25, son of Jamal Uddin, both residents of Satiyan village in Gangny upazila of Meherpur district, Ruhul Miah, 24, son of Sazu Miah of Bamon Chhora village and Rafiqul Islam, 26, son of Khoda Bux of Jaliyachar village in Ulipur upazila in Kurigram district.

Sub-Inspector (SI) of Lalmonirhat Railway PS Abu Hasan Sarker said, informed by local people the railway police caught the four Hizb-ut Tawhid men red handed when they were distributing anti-government leaflets on the station's platform.

A case was lodged against the arrestees with Lalmonirhat railway PS on Monday night.
