

Dhaka too noisy

Call for tough action against polluters

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The capital's noise pollution is driving its citizens crazy. The most common sources of noise pollution here are the construction and transportation systems.

SEE PAGE 6 COL 3

BDR CARNAGE CASE

PM's decision helped avert a civil war

Nanak recalls negotiation with mutineers

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina's timely decision to mediate in the 2009 BDR mutiny saved the country from plunging into civil war.

State Minister for LGRD and Cooperatives Jahangir Kabir Nanak told this to Metropolitan Sessions Judge's Court in his testimony on the February 25-26 revolt at the Pilkhana headquarters of the border guards.

"At that moment of crisis, different wings of the government had a strong internal coordination to gain control over the mutineers," he told the makeshift court set up in the Alia Madrasa playground to hold trial for the mutiny. Emerging from the court, he said those who wanted to ruin democracy only 49 days after the Awami League assumed power, had motives to overthrow an elected government.

SAGAR-RUNI MURDER

Plea for ban on demonstrations dismissed

COURT CORRESPONDENT

A Dhaka court yesterday dismissed a petition to ban journalist leaders from staging demonstrations before the ATN Bangla office on September 16 and at the Jatiya Press Club today.

ATN Bangla Chairman Mahfuzur Rahman filed a case along with the petition against 59 journalist leaders who planned the demonstrations to protest against his alleged involvement in the

SEE PAGE 19 COL 5

The legend of 9/11

The man who survived by 'surfing' debris

FOX NEWS ONLINE

Pasquale Buzzelli, a structural engineer with Port Authority of New York and New Jersey, kissed his eight-month pregnant wife goodbye on the morning of September 11, 2001 and headed to work on

SEE PAGE 6 COL 5

Muslehuddin passes away

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Muslehuddin Ahmad, former diplomat and founder VC of North South

University, the country's first private university, died last night at Square Hospital in the capital.

SEE PAGE 19 COL 8

7 fraudsters sued

Impersonating ACC chief and commissioners, they extorted Tk 34 lakh from people

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The Anti-Corruption Commission yesterday sued seven people including a former ward councillor of Dhaka City Corporation for impersonating the chairman and other officials of ACC and extorting Tk 34 lakh from people.

Akhter Hamid Bhuyan, a deputy director of ACC, filed three cases against the seven impersonators under Anti-Money Laundering Act.

Two cases were filed with Paltan Police

Station in the capital while the other was filed with Joydevpur Police Station in Gazipur.

During preliminary investigation, the ACC team found that the gang had extorted the amount from government and non-government officials using three accounts of two banks.

The swindlers opened the accounts between June, 2011 and June 2012. Akhter Hamid told reporters at the ACC office yesterday.

SEE PAGE 6 COL 2

World's No 1 surrogate mother

DAILYMAIL ONLINE

The world's most prolific surrogate mother has told how she is pregnant again and planning to give away baby number 13.

British-born Carole Horlock, who moved to a

SEE PAGE 6 COL 1

Razakars had ID cards signed by Nizami

Shahriar Kabir tells war crimes tribunal

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Razakars during the Liberation War used to carry identity cards signed by the Jamaat-e-Islami leaders, eminent war crimes researcher Shahriar Kabir told International Crimes Tribunal-2 yesterday.

"The Razakar Bahini was a paid auxiliary force of the Pakistan army," said Shahriar, executive president of Ekattorer Ghatok Dalal Nirmul Committee. He added that incumbent Jamaat Ameer Motiur Rahman Nizami had urged both party activists and people to join the anti-liberation force.

"In their interviews for my documentary, Razakars said they used to put on identity cards signed by Motiur Rahman Nizami," said Shahriar during his cross-examination at the tribunal for the sixth day.

During the cross-examination on

SEE PAGE 19 COL 5

The Daily Star

Integral Energy Limited

ONLINE POLL

Do you think the government will resume providing gas connection to industrial units in a month?

Yes

No

No Comments

(14%)

(80%)

(6%)

TOTAL VOTES: 417

TODAY'S POLL

Do you think the Jatiya Party has strength to contest next polls independently?

PLEASE CAST YOUR VOTE AT www.thedailystar.net

YOU MAY ALSO VOTE AT facebook.com/dailystarnews

PRAYER TIMING			September 11
	Azan	Jamaat
Fajr	4:35	5:10
Zohr	12:45	1:15
Asr	4:30	4:45
Maghrib	6:14	6:17
Esha	7:45	8:15
Source: Islamic Foundation			