Hajj pilgrims kept waiting

Saudi Arabian NAS Air flights delayed for technical glitches

MD FAZLUR RAHMAN

After the recent chaos by Biman Bangladesh Airlines, hajj pilgrims of National Air Services (NAS) were stranded yesterday due to inadequate number of aircraft of the low cost Saudi airline.

The disruption delayed the departure of 1,100 pilgrims who finally flew by NAS Air of Saudi Arabia last night. Those passengers were supposed to depart on Tuesday but could not fly due to technical glitches of the aircraft.

The pilgrims arrived at Hazrat Shahjalal International SEE PAGE 6 COL 3

GAZIPUR BY-POLLS

Afsar eyes BNP vote bank

RASHIDUL HASAN from Kapasia, Gazipur

With only two days left before polling gets underway, independent candidate Afsaruddin Ahmad is keen to get the BNP vote bank in his favour, while the main opposition party is asking its supporters not to vote in the Gazipur-4 by-polls.

The BNP adopted this stance mainly to reflect poor public confidence in the Awami League, said local leaders of the party.

Electioneering for the September 30 by-polls will end at midnight today.

The main contest in the by-polls will be between AL dissident Afsaruddin and his niece and AL candidate SEE PAGE 19 COL 5
