ARBITRATION
Girl lashed 101 times

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Manikganj

A schoolgirl was subjected to 101 lashes through arbitration in Naogaon village of Manikganj on Wednesday over her "relationship" with a Hindu youth, locals said.

Razzak, a local union parishad member, set up the arbitration. He handed down the "punishment" to her on the ground that despite being a Muslim girl she had fled with neighbour Dinesh Chandra to get

MONEY LAUNDERING
22 Destiny officials' bail cancelled

COURT CORRESPONDENT

A Dhaka court yesterday cancelled bail to 22 high officials of Destiny Group including its Managing Director Md Rafiqul Amin in two money laundering cases.

The court also ordered the accused to surrender before the lower court.

Following the cancellation of the bail, the accused must have to go to jail upon surrender, Kabir Hussain, public prosecutor of the Anti-Corruption Commission (ACC), told The Daily Star.

Judge Mohammad Zahirul Haque of the Senior Special Judge's Court passed the order after the ACC had filed four criminal appeals challenging the legality of the bail granted to the Destiny officials by three lower courts.

ANTI-ISLAM CARTOON
Now Spanish magazine joins the fray

REUTERS, Madrid

Spanish political satire magazine El Jueves has published a cartoon of the Prophet Muhammad on its cover, soon after violent protests rocked the Muslim world over a US film and French caricatures deemed insulting to Islam.

El Jueves' latest edition, which hit Spanish newsstands on Wednesday, shows several Muslims in a police lineup under the title "But...does anyone know what Mohammad looks like?"

Any depiction of the prophet is considered

Quashem's detention extended
2 more months given for probe

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

International Crimes Tribunal-1 yesterday granted the prosecution two more months to submit an investigation report on Mir Quashem Ali's alleged involvement in war crimes. All the while the suspect will be in jail.

Receiving a progress report on the investigation, the court also said on November 27 the prosecution could submit a progress report if it failed to complete the probe by then.

HAJJ FLIGHTS OF NAS
Further delays worry pilgrims

MD FAZLUR RAHMAN

Sufferings of hajj pilgrims continue, as more flights of National Air Services (NAS) were delayed for longer periods contrary to the claims made by the airline authorities.

Passengers complained that they had been staying in hotels and the hajj camp at Ashkona for the last two days as their Jeddah flight did not leave on September 25 as scheduled.

Mohammad Mizan and his wife arrived at the airport on Tuesday to catch their NAS Air flight to Jeddah, but had to stay for a day at the hajj camp and another day at a boarding house.

"Nobody informed us that the flight has been delayed," he told The Daily Star.

Pilgrims flocking at the airport from across the country shared similar tales of their plight caused by the two-day delay.

Leader of a group of 84 hajj pilgrims, Zakir Hossain claimed neither the airline nor the travel agents informed him about the delay. "I was informed by other sources,"

GAZIPUR BY-POLLS
No outsider allowed in Kapasia from today

RASHIDUL HASAN, back from Kapasia, Gazipur

No outsider except journalists and law enforcers will be allowed to stay in Kapasia for three days beginning today.

Ahead of the Sunday's by-polls in Gazipur-4 constituency, the Election Commission has asked the law enforcers to ensure this arrangement "in the interest of a free and fair election".

"We have asked [the law enforcers] not to allow even relatives of the inhabitants to stay in Kapasia," Returning

SYRIAN CONFLICT
300 killed in a single day
Up to 700,000 could flee by year-end: UNHCR

REUTERS, Beirut/Geneva

More than 300 people were killed in Syria on Wednesday, the Syrian Observatory for Human Rights said, in one of the bloodiest days in the 18-month uprising against President Bashar al-Assad.

The British-based organisation, which monitors violence in Syria through a network of activists, said in a report released yesterday that 55 people were killed in rural areas around Damascus.

They included at least 40 who appeared to have been shot in cold blood in the town of al-Dhiyabia, southeast of the capital.

Also yesterday, the UN refugee agency said the number of refugees fleeing Syria could reach 700,000 by the end of the year,
