They will return on October 7.

Mojaheed signed Razakar's ID card

War crimes tribunal told

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

A prosecution witness yesterday told the International Crimes Tribunal-2 that after the Liberation War, he had found a Razakar's identity card signed by war crimes accused Ali Ahsan Mohammad Mojaheed.

Mahbub Kamal, a former student leader and the third prosecution witness in the war crimes case against the Jamaat-e-Islami secretary general, also said Mojaheed used to visit a Razakar camp at the city's Fakirpool during the war.

"I think Razakars and Al-Badr men committed war crimes just like the Pakistani army did and in some cases their [Razakars and Al-Badr] crimes were more vicious," said the 59-year-old journalist.

According to prosecution documents, Razakars and Al-Badr, two anti-liberation forces, collaborated with the Pakistan army in committing genocide, mass killings and other crimes against humanity during the war.

KAILASH SARKAR

Sarwar Hossain and Mohammad Jahangir had been running an organised gang that lifted more than 500 vehicles from Dhaka and elsewhere in the last 20 years.

With around 25 members across the country, the gang has the expertise and equipment to engrave new numbers on the engine and chassis of a stolen vehicle to dodge law enforcers and the authorities concerned.

The gang has the capacity to unlock and run any vehicle, prepare fake documents related to import of any vehicle, customs clearance and registration from Bangladesh Road Transport Authorities (BRTA), Sarwar told The Daily Star at the Detective Branch (DB) office on Minto Road yesterday.

These hilsa were captured from the Tentulia river in Patuakhali ignoring a ban on hilsa fishing. The fish had not finished breeding as they have eggs in them. During the 11-day ban on hilsa fishing, mobile courts in 3,332 raids seized 36.8 tonnes of hilsa in the country. But the raids were apparently ineffective in protecting hilsa as the fish were dead when seized.

With her enormous, glassy eyes, purple hair and coquettish pose, Anastasiya Shpagina could have stepped from the scene of a Japanese anime film.

The 19-year-old anime fan has transformed herself into a living cartoon character, complete with miniature waist, vividly-coloured hair, and a defined pout.

Originally from the Ukraine, Shpagina takes style inspiration from the cartoons and computer animations that have a huge following in Japan, and has even adopted a Japanese name -- Fukkacumi.
