Sayedee's name, age changed thru' anomalies

Reveals ministry probe

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

A probe committee formed by the education ministry has unearthed anomalies occurred during amendment of Jamaat-e-Islami leader Delawar Hossain Sayedee's name and age in his Dakhil and Alim certificates in 2008.

The committee in its report accuses Sayedee, who is facing trial on charges of committing crimes against humanity during the Liberation War in 1971, and some senior officials of Madrasa Education Board of flouting the rules.

The probe body led by Additional Secretary of Education Ministry Mohammad Atoar Rahman in the report prepared after examining all relevant documents listed 10 anomalies in the amendment process.

The Daily Star has obtained a copy of the probe report,

30 hurt in clash over eviction

700 shanties demolished

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

At least 30 people were injured after dwellers of Bhandari slum in the capital's Kafrul clashed with police and National Housing Authority (NHA), during an eviction drive yesterday.

Police demolished around 700 makeshift structures out of 1,500, and would tear down the rest today.

The NHA had acquired the land, which was home to low wage earners like rickshaw pullers and day labourers for the last two decades.

Fast food linked to lower IQ

MAIL ONLINE

Children given more fast food meals will grow up to have a lower IQ than those who regularly eat freshly-cooked meals, according to a study.

Childhood nutrition has long lasting effects on IQ, even after previous intelligence and wealth and social status are taken into account, it found.

The study examined whether the type of main

Shiru Mia taken out of jail for killing

Musician Bulbul testifies against Ghulam Azam

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

A prosecution witness yesterday told International Crimes Tribunal-1 that before his very eyes the Pakistani army took away Shiru Mia and his son Kamal along with 36 others from Brahmanbaria jail for killing.

Testifying against war crimes accused former Jamaat chief Ghulam Azam, Ahmed Imtiaz Bulbul said he later heard that all 38 had been killed at Koiratola on that November night, which was the night of Eid-ul-Fitr in 1971.

This incident relates to one of the five charges of crimes against humanity against Ghulam Azam.

According to the prosecution, the 38 were tortured and killed on Ghulam Azam's written orders.

Martyred Shiru Mia was a sub-inspector of Mohamadpur Police Station.

Singer and musician Bulbul, who was detained in jail along with the martyrs, yesterday gave a heart-rending description of the farewell as the detainees were taken away.

"Give my lungis and this cigarette butt to my mother," said Bulbul quoting Nazrul, a freedom fighter.

"If you [Bulbul] see a mad woman on the street, she would be my mother," said

Defence again fails to produce witnesses

Tribunal issues fresh warning for Sayedee's counsels

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Allowing the defence one more day to produce witnesses, International Crimes Tribunal-1 yesterday in an order said if Sayedee's defence failed to bring witnesses again, it would not be allowed to produce witnesses any more.

The tribunal issued this order a day after warning the defence of Jamaat-e-Islami leader Delawar Hossain Sayedee over their failure to produce witnesses.
