Fatal crash takes 13 lives

Bus from wrong side rams microbus in Sylhet, 12 of the dead were from same family

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Sylhet

At least 13 people, twelve of them from the same family, were killed and 30 others injured in a head-on collision between a bus and a microbus at South Surma of Sylhet yesterday morning.

The accident occurred around 6:30 am in Tetli area on Dhaka-Sylhet highway when a Sylhet-bound bus, taking the wrong side of the road, rammed the microbus with 13 people, witnesses said.

All the dead were microbus passengers while the 30 injured were passengers of the bus, said A B Barua, commissioner of Sylhet Metropolitan Police.

The microbus passengers were going to their village home in Lalpur of Biswanath upazila from Sylhet town, he said adding that twelve of the deceased belonged to the same family.

The dead are Waris Miah, 70, his wife Piara Begum, 60, their son Babul Miah 40, daughter Sufia Begum, 25, daughter-in-law Hajera Begum, 32, and son-in-law

Kim signals WB reforms

REUTERS, Washington

The head of the World Bank said on Thursday he was preparing broad reforms at the development lender to make it more effective in ending global poverty and would discuss the changes with member countries at meetings in Tokyo next week.

The annual meetings of the International Monetary Fund and World Bank from October 11-14 in Japan will be the first opportunity for Jim Yong Kim to put his mark on the institution since becoming president in July.

"We're not ready to ask for specific changes yet ... but if we are going to be really serious about ending poverty

Attack planned, police inactive

Concludes BNP team visiting Ramu; govt comes forward with cash, foods for Buddhist victims

STAR REPORT

Questioning the role of police during the attack a week ago, opposition party BNP's team probing the attack on Buddhists in Ramu yesterday said it was a premeditated strike.

"...The role of police was not satisfactory during the attack on Buddhist temples," BNP standing committee member Moudud Ahmed told reporters after visiting Ramu, Cox's Bazar.

Moudud, who was leading the eight-member team, said it was clear that the law enforcement team was inactive during the incident, reports our Chittagong correspondent.

The team reached Shima Bihar around 10:30am and talked to the monastery

800 shanties demolished

NHA moves to recover illegally occupied land

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

About 800 more shanties were demolished at Bhandari slum in the capital's Kafrul area yesterday, on the second-day drive by the National Housing Authority (NHA).

The NHA with assistance from the police carried out the seven-hour drive without any resistance from the residents, as it happened on Thursday.

Yesterday's eviction employed 200 workers and a bulldozer. In the last two days, around 1,500 shanties of the slum have been levelled.

NHA Magistrate AKM Tipu Sultan told The Daily Star

A teacher with a difference

Bahaz takes no day-off, no leave for 33 years

MIRZA SHAKIL, Tangail

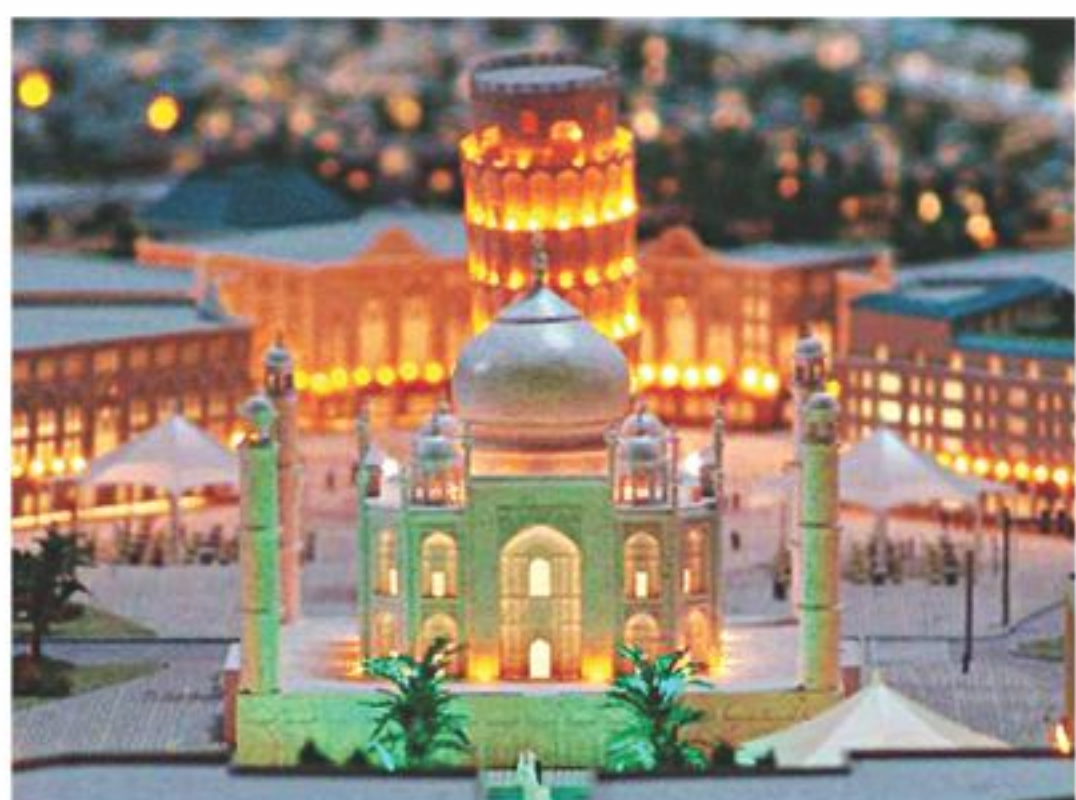

Md Bahaz Ali Fakir, an English teacher of a secondary school, has not taken even a day's leave for the past 33 years, setting an example of great devotion to his profession.

Teaching at Shaheed Smirty High School and College in Tangail's Madhupur upazila, Bahaz, 55, has been off work only on weekends and national holidays over the years, despite many difficulties along the way.

Headmaster of the school Mohammad Bazlur Rashid Khan said other teachers in the institution have followed Bahaz's footsteps and promised to work without taking leave.
