Totti third in all-time list

Roma icon Francesco Totti scored his 217th goal in Italy's top flight to make third spot in Serie A's all-time scoring list his own in a thrilling 4-2 defeat of Genoa on Sunday. Totti went into the match tied on a career 216 league goals with Jose Altafini and Giuseppe Meazza after scoring against Sampdoria at the end of last month. The 36-year-old playmaker reduced the arrears on Sunday in the 27th minute after Roma had conceded twice in the first 15 minutes.

Federation Cup 2012

Despite conceding a 95th minute lead, Sheikh Russel KC produced a brilliant turnaround to enter into the history book as the sixth team (after Mohammedan, Abahani, Brothers, Muktijoddha and Sheikh Jamal DC) to win the Federation Cup. They also ended their long wait for their first-ever silverware in their club's history.

Since their journey in top-level football began in the 2003-4 season, Sheikh Russel impressed all to finish behind champions Brothers Union in the then Premier Division Football League and become runners-up in the Independence Cup tournament in 2010. But these were the only mentionable achievements of the Blue and White outfit until yesterday.

But a spirited come-from-behind win, mirroring their semifinal triumph over Mohammedan ensured that it would be a day to savour in the history of the club.

Zahid Hasan Emily and the Haitian Sony Norde were the key men behind the historic victory while midfielder Mamunul Islam was the chief architect after providing the pass for both the goals.

"The way Sheikh Russel had been playing they deserved it and it was a total team effort," said top-scorer Emily who cancelled out Otojorari's 105th minute strike

It was billed as the battle between brothers. It was also billed as the battle between the two hitmen; Zahid Hasan Emily and Mike Otojorari. And like brothers, Sheikh Jamal Dhamondi Club and Sheikh Russel equally battled tooth and nail deep into injury time of extra-time after the two respective hitmen had traded blows.

In the end, it was left to the irrepressible Sony Norde to crash a left foot volley into the back of the net with almost the last kick of the game and give Sheikh Russel their first top-flight trophy in history.

The blue and whites owe a lot to their Haitian recruit whose tireless running and brilliant play brought them back into the game after Mike Otojorari had done what all good centre-forwards should do; give his side a barely deserved lead. The Nigerian giant had bossed the Russel backline in a commanding performance that will have left centre-backs Razaul Karim Reza and Mamun Miah sporting more than a few bruises. The big Nigerian more than compensated for the absence of compatriot Sunday Chizoba by handing Sheikh Jamal the lead five minutes into extra-time.

A lively first ninety minutes had ended goalless with Russel coming the closest to breaking the deadlock. Their Moroccan forward Mohammed Aboukacem had beat Jamal goalkeeper Maksudur Rahman but saw his crisp left-foot effort rebound out off the left hand post. But with ninety minutes up no side had come closer to breaking the deadlock.

So when Jamal forward Chizoba Joseph had burst into the box but found his effort towards the bottom corner blocked by the diving Biplob Bhattacharjee, it seemed another case of being so close yet so far. But with the ball breaking free, Otojorari shrugged off the attentions of Aminul Islam to turn inside the six yard box and crash an effort into the back of the net. It was his sixth goal of the tournament. The goal looked tough on Russel, after they had threatened to break the deadlock for most of the first ninety minutes but found themselves denied, either by their own profligacy or bad luck.

All Jamal had to do was hold on until the whistle and they would be assured of their second victory in three seasons. It looked just reward for the pragmatic approach of coach Joseph Afusi who had sent his team out in a 4-1 formation and advised them to use the height of Otojorari at every possible opportunity. It was a good tactic that paid dividends for most of the game as Russel's nifty keep-the-ball-on-the-ground approach seemed much more difficult to execute on a bumpy dustbowl at the Bangabandhu National Stadium.

But sometimes, the nicer approach pays off and it did yesterday. Going a goal down seemed to have breathed new life into the nifty Norde. A wonderful run down the left towards the byline saw him cut the ball back to an unmarked Anwar Hossain who proceeded to crash the ball against a defender with the goal begging. From the resulting corner though, Russel struck the equaliser. Mamunul Islam's initial corner was cleared comfortably but the left-footed midfielder had a second bite at the cherry and his arching cross evaded the lanky Osagie Monday to find Emily. The national striker had been a phantom presence for almost the entire game, but he was there when it mattered most, heading emphatically into the bottom corner. It was his seventh goal in six matches. There was five minutes remaining and Russel had their tails up. They could smell a first trophy and aided on by the indefatigable Tarik El Janaby, they kept pouring forward. The denouement though, was aptly left for the brilliant Norde, as the midfielder found just enough room outside the area to crash an unstoppable left-footer into the corner of the net in injury time of extra time and send the Russel fans inside the stadium into raptures.

Sony Norde (L) was the architect of Sheikh Russel's Monday's glory while prolific striker Zahid Hasan Emily (R) struck a decisive goal, his seventh, in the Federation Cup yesterday.

Dhaka win with a day to spare

14th National Cricket League

Dhaka became the first team to win a match in the 14th National Cricket League (NCL) after they thumped reigning champions Rajshahi by 127 runs at the Sher-e-Bangla National Stadium in Mirpur on the third day of the first-round matches yesterday. The day also witnessed the season's first double-century as Dhaka Metro youngster Marshal Ayub, who had an overnight score of 100, went on to surpass the double century mark against Chittagong towards the end of the day at the Shaheed Chandu Stadium in Bogra.

At the Sheikh Abu Naser Stadium in Khulna, Barisal's Shohag Gazi picked up seven wickets against Khulna, single-handedly demolishing the hosts.

Meanwhile, the game at the Cricket Garden in Rangpur continued at a steady pace as the home team ended the day trailing Sylhet by 18 runs in their second innings.

DHAKA vs RAJSHAHI

Beginning the day on 295 for 7, Dhaka added another 27 runs and set Rajshahi a target of 260. The reigning champions though were in strife from the start of the chase, losing their first five wickets for 61 runs. They were finally bowled out for a paltry 133.

Captain Mashfiqur Rahim, who earlier did not bat on the second following a minor injury suffered from an on-field collision with teammate Saqlain Sajib, tried to resist but was caught behind in the 33rd over while trying to play a leg glance off Dhaka captain Mahmudullah Riyad.

The latter became an unlikely bowling hero for the hosts ending with figures of 4 for 29. Mosharrif Hossain

'Crucial to switch to Test mode'

Cricket

SPORTS REPORTER

Bangladesh captain Mashfiqur Rahim has said that the national players are aiming to make the most of the two rounds of the National Cricket League (NCL) that they will get to play before they get busy with their preparations for the series against the West Indies.

"We are playing Test cricket after a long time. We need to practise hard. I think if we can play well in both these matches, while it may not be good enough, we can still go into the Test series with some good confidence," said Mashfiqur.

The fact that the Bangladesh Cricket Board (BCB) hasn't yet planned a national camp for a series that begins early next month, didn't bother the captain. "I think the player is tested the most during a match. These matches will make us more ready for the series as compared to the camps," he said.

The NCL so far has seen 6 centurions, only one of which has been scored by a current national team member (Tamim Iqbal's 192 for Chittagong against Dhaka Metro). The reason behind this worrying statistic, according to Mashfiqur, is the lack of games played by the national players in the longer format.

"It's not a big problem, but people who play in the national team have to set examples. The ball used here is a little different too. It swings more. It took me time to adjust as well. On the whole, we have to shift from a T20 mood to the Test mood as soon as possible," said the captain.

Ayub basks in double-ton glow

SPORTS REPORTER

It was a moment to cherish for the young Marshal Ayub, who clawed his way to his first ever double-century against Chittagong at the Shaheed Chandu Stadium in Bogra during the third day of their first-round National Cricket League (NCL) match yesterday. It took the 23-year-old eight hours and 45 minutes and 395 balls to reach his memorable score of 209. The score surpasses his previous best of 181 in first-class cricket.

Ayub, who also bowls decent leg-spinners, resumed the day on 100 and batted on till he got out in the last session of the third day.

"The wicket was really good. My initial target was to reach 150 and once I did that I knew that getting a double-century was possible," said Ayub after
