

TANGAIL-3 BY-POLLS

BNP votes might decide results

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Tangail

With the opposition BNP boycotting the Tangail-3 by-election, the three candidates desperately tried to draw the BNP vote bank which is believed to decide the results of tomorrow's poll as campaigning closed yesterday.

The early favourites however are Awami League-nominated candidate Shahidul Islam Lebu and AL rebel Amanur Rahman Khan Rana, who is contesting independently.

A campaigner for Rana said their candidate would bag most of the BNP votes, as the past BNP leaders in Ghatail were all from Rana's family and a former local BNP lawmaker was Rana's uncle.

Rana, religious affairs secretary of Tangail district AL, was expelled from the AL yesterday for violating the party decision. He is contesting the election with the symbol of pineapple.

The chief campaigner for Lebu called Rana an outsider and said conscious Ghatail people would not vote for any outsider. The people will vote for Lebu, former Ghatail upazila AL general secretary, considering him a local candidate, he said.

Ghatail upazila Jatiya Party said their candidate Syed Abu Yusuf Abdullah Tuhin would get most of the BNP votes, the anti-AL votes alongside his party votes. Tuhin, an industrialist, has got the electoral symbol of plough.

Ghatail BNP however called the election one-sided and said most of the BNP supporters would not go to the polling stations.

Let int'l NGOs help Rohingyas: US official

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Cox's Bazar

A visiting top US official yesterday urged Dhaka to allow international NGOs to provide "humanitarian aid" to Rohingyas taking refuge in Bangladesh.

US Under Secretary of State Maria Otero for Civilian Security, Democracy and Human Rights however thanked Bangladesh for giving shelter to Rohingyas, a persecuted minority from western Myanmar.

She said the "Rohingya issue is complicated" and that collective regional efforts were necessary to find a solution to it. In this connection, the US is ready to help Myanmar, Bangladesh and other countries affected by Rohingya displacement, she told a press briefing at Cox's Bazar Airport.

Jamaat anarchy threat to war crimes trial: Inu

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Sylhet

The recent anarchy by Jamat-Shibir activists is a clear threat to the ongoing war crimes trial and a punishable offence by law but the government showed its highest patience in this regard, said Information Minister Hasanul Haq Inu yesterday.

He was addressing journalists at Sylhet Circuit House after visiting the shrines of Hazrat Shahjalal (RA) and Hazrat Shahporan (RA) in Sylhet.

The communal force revealed its true identity through the planned attacks on law enforcers. Such incidents and the Ramu massacre prove that the country's democracy is not safe and has a weak base, he said.

Inu also reiterated his call to BNP Chairperson Khaleda Zia to drop Jamaat-e-Islami from the BNP-led alliance to prove her commitment to democratic values.

He said the government would formulate a framework for the government-run media.

The draft national broadcasting policy would be media-friendly and ready in two months. A separate wage board for electronic media would be formed through consultations with journalists, employees and the media owners, he said.

A strong media will help build a strong democracy, he said, calling upon journalists to make use of the Right to Information Act, 2009 and Information Commission to get rid of bureaucratic complexities and corruption.

Jatiya Sangsad Chief Whip Abdus Shahid was also present.

PHULBARI COAL DEPOSIT

Open pit mining to affect environment

Speakers tell roundtable

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Speakers at a roundtable yesterday strongly opposed plans for open pit mining at Phulbari coal deposit, saying it would cause serious environmental damage and displace around 10 lakh people.

They demanded withdrawal of a recent home ministry circular directing the local administration to help Asia Energy, which will conduct a survey at the coal deposit.

Shaptahik, a weekly news magazine, organised the roundtable in the capital's Bilia auditorium.

Open pit mining will cause a decrease in groundwater levels within a 15km radius of the deposit, said Prof Badrul Imam.

Prof Nurul Islam said the government must carry out the pilot project, ensure its ownership of the resources and impose a ban on coal export.

BD Rahmatullah said Bangladesh should go for alternative energy sources like the air and the sun to meet the demand.

Criticising the finance minister, columnist Syed Abul Maksud said the minister should have called Asia Energy, not Bangladesh Petroleum Exploration and Production Company Limited, "stupid". Shaptahik Editor Golam Murtaza moderated the event where Fara Kabir and Shubho Kibria also spoke.
