STUDY ON MPs

Angry lawmakers term survey ill-motivated; Speaker to decide on course of action; TIB executive director says any decision should be consistent with democracy

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Speaker Abdul Hamid and some ruling alliance MPs in parliament yesterday launched a blistering attack on TIB, terming the graft watchdog's recent survey on the activities of lawmakers "flawed" and "ill-motivated".

In response to lawmakers clamouring for action against TIB for "undermining the dignity of parliament", the Speaker said he would come up with a decision later in consultation with some senior MPs.

Some lawmakers, including Tofail Ahmed and Sheikh Fazlul Karim Selim, requested the Speaker to convene a meeting of the parliamentary standing committee on privileges, and to summon TIB officials to appear before it to defend the survey.

The Transparency International Bangladesh (TIB) report, released on October 14, said 97 percent of the 149 sitting MPs surveyed were involved in "negative activities" that include being linked to or being supportive of criminal activities, misusing public funds and influencing government decisions.

And 70 percent of those involved in "negative activities" were engaged in "criminal activities" like murder, land-grabbing, extortion, tender manipulation and cheating. Many MPs even used their position to boost their income, the survey added.

Contacted yesterday, TIB Executive Director

Give me another chance to serve

Khaleda pledges facelift for country

UNB, Barisal

BNP Chairperson Khaleda Zia yesterday sought public support for another term in power, pledging a facelift of the country through massive development work.

"Give me one more chance. I will give the country a facelift through massive development work and will make it free of corruption," she told a rally at Bangabandhu Park in Barisal city organised by the BNP-led 18-party alliance.

"If I fail to do that, I'm giving you my word, I'll accept any punishment," added the former premier.

The opposition alliance has been campaigning for the restoration of the recently-abolished caretaker government system to oversee the general elections.

In an apparent reference to the allies of the Awami League in the ruling grand alliance government, Khaleda said, "Come out of the control of thieves."

Cabinet happy with annual reports

Ministries, divisions portray only successes in power generation, remittance and other areas

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The cabinet headed by Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina yesterday expressed satisfaction with annual reports of the ministries and divisions, which focused only on the success of the government.

The reports drew attention to positive developments in 28 areas like power generation, inflow of remittance, disposal of pending cases and social safety net programmes. But they mentioned nothing about infrastructure development projects like Padma bridge and corruption issues, according to a fact sheet provided by the cabinet division.

One of the success stories is a reduction in the drop-out rate in primary schools, 29.7 percent in 2011-12, down from 39.8 percent in the previous year.

The reports were submitted four months after the completion of the fiscal year.

The cabinet evaluated the reports and was very happy about the progress, Cabinet Secretary M Musharraf Hossain Bhuiyan said, briefing journalists after the

'No excuse for violence' in Myanmar

Rohingyas too have dignity, Obama says during his historic visit

STAR REPORT

US President Barack Obama used a historic speech in Myanmar yesterday to urge an end to sectarian unrest in the western state of Rakhine, saying there was "no excuse for violence against innocent people".

"National reconciliation will take time, but for the sake of our common humanity, and for the sake of this country's future, it is necessary to stop the incitement and to stop violence," he added.

He called for an end to communal violence between Muslims and Buddhists in the western state of Rakhine.

"Today, we look at the recent violence in Rakhine state that has caused so much suffering, and we see the danger of continued tensions there," Obama said in his address at Yangon University.

"For too long, the people of this state, including ethnic Rakhine, have faced crushing poverty and persecution. But there's no excuse for violence against innocent people, and the Rohingya hold within themselves the same dignity as you do, and I do," he added.
