

In-laws torture her for dowry, police refuse to take case without bribe

A CORRESPONDENT, Cox's Bazar

A housewife has been inhumanly tortured allegedly by her in-laws for failing to meet their dowry demand at Monohorkhali village under Kutubdia upazila.

Police refused to take any case in this connection as they were demanding Tk 10,000 as bribe, alleged the father to the victim.

Family members said, victim Rozina Akther, 23, mother of a two-month-old baby, was married off to Jamal Uddin four years ago.

Soon after the marriage, the in-laws started to torture her for dowry. Her father Mir Kashem gave a good sum in several phases but it failed to bring happiness to Rozina.

On December 15, 2009 Rozina filed a case with the judicial magistrate court, accusing six other in-laws.

However, following assurances from the local elders, the case was withdrawn.

But a few days ago, the in-laws returned to their former state and started to brutally torture Rozina, leaving her unconscious.

The in-laws then fled their houses, fearing that Rozina had died of torture.

On information, police rescued her in the morning on November 21 and sent her to upazila health complex.

As her condition deteriorated there, Rozina was shifted to Cox's Bazar General Hospital where she is now fighting for life.

Contacted, officer in-charge (OC) Md Abul Hashem of Kutubdia police station refuted the allegation of demanding bribe.

MAN JAILED IN JESSORE

Away in Jessore, a court on Wednesday sentenced a man to two years' rigorous imprisonment (RI) for torturing his wife for dowry, reports UNB.

The convict was Polash Kumar, son of Shashi Baunia at Boalia village under Bagarpara upazila of the district.

After examining all witnesses and evidence, Chief Judicial Magistrate Sheikh Mafizur Rahman pronounced the verdict against Polash. He also fined him Tk 500, in default, to suffer one month more in jail.

According to the prosecution, Lipika Rani, daughter of Bimal Kumar Biswas of the same village, was married off to Polash by paying Tk 50,000 out of Tk 1 lakh demanded as dowry.

In 2003, Polash forced Lipika out of the house as she failed to bring the rest Tk 50,000 from her parents.

Later, he brought Lipika back home again after the matter was settled at a local arbitration.

But he drove her out of the house again, demanding dowry, within six months.

On February 7, 2004, Lipika lodged a case against her husband.

Teachers and students of Sevil School and College along with relatives and neighbours of slain Symon Rahman (inset), a nursery student of the institution, form a human chain in front of Dinajpur Press Club yesterday demanding immediate arrest of the killers. Symon went missing from near his house at Balubari in Dinajpur municipality on Tuesday evening and his body was found in a sack in satellite town area on Wednesday morning.

Jubo Dal leader held, arms recovered

UNB, Pirojpur

Members of Rapid Action Battalion (Rab) arrested a local Jatiyatabadi Jubo Dal leader at Tona Bridge under Tona union in Sadar upazila on Wednesday night.

Rab-8 sources said they also recovered a light gun and three bullets from Ziaul Hasan Hawladar, 40, vice-president of Kalakhal union unit Jubo Dal and member of the upazila unit Jubo Dal convening committee. He hails from Hularhat village of Kalakhal UP.

A Rab-8 officer, seeking anonymity, said that acting on a secret information that Ziaul Hassan was possessing illegal firearms, a team of the elite forces, led by ASP Masudul Anwar, raided Tona Bridge area and picked up the Jubo Dal leader on his way back home from a bazaar at 9:30pm.

The Rab officer claimed that after the confessional statement by Ziaul, they recovered the arms from his house at Hularhat village of neighbour- ing Kalakhal union.

Contacted, Gazi Nuruzzaman Babul, district unit BNP president and former MP from Pirojpur-1 constituency, told the news agency that the elite force held Ziaul from Tona bazaar where he went to buy medicine at 9:30pm.

But he denied the police claim that the Jubo Dal leader possessed any arms and ammo.

PCJSS man shot dead

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Khagrachhari

A youth, reportedly a member of Parbatya Chattagram Jana Sanghati Samity (PCJSS), was shot dead in Dhiginala upazila of the district early yesterday.

The victim is Sumanto Chakma, 27, but the details of his identity could not be known immediately.

Informed by locals police recovered the bullet-hit body from Narikelbagan area of the upazila yesterday morning.

An armed gang opened fire on the youth around 01:00am and dumped the body near a waterway of Narikelbagan area, about four kilometers away from the upazila town, police said.

Officer in-charge of Dhiginala police station Sahadat Hossain Titu said, they sent the body to Khagrachhari Adhunik Sadar Hospital for autopsy.

Police suspect that the killing might be a sequel to the conflict between clashes took place between the bus workers and easy bike drivers when the latter were taking passengers parking their bikes on the main road in Judge Court area of the town.

As the bus drivers on the road protested it, some easy bike owners beat up a worker of a bus, triggering fierce clashes.

After the incident, president of Meherpur District Easy Bike Association, also president of district Jubo League Sazzadul Islam filed a case against 200 people including District Bus-Truck Owners and Workers Oikya Parishad president Golam Rasul and general secretary Esken Ali.

regional political parties over establishing supremacy in the area.

Press and information secretary of PCJSS Sajib Chakma claimed that the deceased was their activist.

He blamed the armed cadres of anti-peace accord United Peoples Democratic Front (UPDF) for the killing but the press and information secretary of the UPDF Niran Chakma refuted the allegation.
