Samuels makes Tigers suffer

BISHWAJIT ROY from Khulna

Marlon Samuels hit his maiden double hundred and Mr Test Cricket, Shivnarine Chanderpaul ambled to yet another century as the West Indies piled the misery on hosts Bangladesh on the third day of the second Test at the Sheikh Abu Naser Stadium on Friday.

Samuels, whose previous Test best was 123, played with exemplary patience on way to notching a spectacular 260, which came of 455-balls with 31 fours and three sixes. The elegant right-hander had his sights firmly set on reaching the magical 300 mark but even his cautious approach was not enough to keep out an excellent delivery from Rubel Hossain. It was only the second success on a long day for the Tigers, following the wicket of Darren Bravo, who fell also after completing his century.

At one point, it looked like Samuels would not give away his wicket, but Rubel produced a beauty that reared up from length and took the shoulder of the bat to substitute fielder Elias Sunny at gully. It ended a 177-run fourth wicket stand with Chanderpaul, who finished the day on 109 not out along with Denesh Ramdin.

The visitors were 564-4 at stumps courtesy of a mammoth 326-run third wicket stand between Samuels and Bravo, which was broken just three balls before the lunch session as spinner Shohag Gazi trapped Bravo in front. They will carry a considerable 177-run lead going into the fourth day with a clear intention of putting as many runs as possible on the board so that they avoid batting for a second time.

Small rewards for Rubel's shift

SPORTS REPORTER from Khulna

Rubel Hossain kicked the air in disgust after Shahriar Nafees reluctantly watched a ball flying through the slip to the boundary. Understandably, the young pace bowler was frustrated by the poor effort of his fielder when the chances were few and far between for the bowlers in a difficult surface at the Sheikh Abu Naser Stadium in Khulna.

Rubel and his partner Abul Hasan bowled brilliantly in the first sessions and created some chances but luck didn't favour them to get any success against the West Indies batsmen. Rubel picked up one wicket yesterday after a whole day's effort but his bowling figure definitely will not show how well he has bowled.

Undoubtedly it was a tiring day for the bowlers and there was no reason any bowler would enjoy this kind of surface where there was no assistance. But Rubel was not being bored while he was bowling on this pitch.

"I always enjoy my bowling no matter what the condition is and that's why I didn't feel bored. The wicket is friendly for the batsman that's why I always tried to put the ball in the right areas and I tried to maintain my line and length," said a shy-smiling Rubel.

There had been much talk about the luck-factor as especially Rubel didn't get his reward after the way the right-arm paceman bowled against the two set batsmen in Marlon Samuels and Darren Bravo.

"Yes, luck factor is there as sometimes bowlers get wickets off a bad ball and sometimes the opposite happens but I am not thinking about this not am I worried about it," said a confident Rubel.

Work ethic pays off for Marlon

BISHWAJIT ROY from Khulna

Marlon Samuels added another feather to his cap after making his maiden Test double-hundred against Bangladesh on the third day of the second Test at the Sheikh Abu Naser Stadium yesterday.

It has been a great year for the moody Caribbean star who came here with two centuries under his belt as well as a spectacular match-winning innings in the World Twenty20 final in Sri Lanka to give his country a memorable success in the ICC's multi-national tournament.

So the obvious question after the yesterday's achievement was what was the secret behind his great success in this year?

"When you have family and kids, you value your life more. You continue to work hard, your work ethic is different, eating right, staying fit. The hard work I am putting in the background is working for me," was the answer from the 31-year old Jamaican.

He was delighted but at the same time he was also little bit disappointed as he missed an rare opportunity to make a triple hundred as a beautiful delivery from Rubel Hossain shattered his dream of achieving the rare mark.

"It is most definitely disappointing (missing the triple hundred). Nevertheless, a double-century is a big milestone. I have to work with it and enjoy it to the fullest," he said.

After end of the World Twenty20 final in Sri Lanka, the right-hander declared that he wanted three more centuries this year. He apparently seems to be on the right track to realise his dream and he jokingly said that he wanted the double hundred to count as two centuries.

"I said at the end of the T20 World Cup final, I wanted two more centuries so yes, this double century is two centuries and after the Test series there is five one-day matches, so I still have the chance," said Samuels with a smile.

Samuels had to come through difficult times to rejuvenate his international career and he has experienced a revival in his career after being reinstated in the team in 2011. Samuels was banned for two years in 2008 for "receiving money, or benefit or other reward that could bring him or the game of cricket into disrepute".

But he said yesterday he did not do anything wrong. "If I have done something wrong, I wouldn't come back into international cricket. But I haven't done anything wrong so that let me come back

ODI SQUAD ANNOUNCED

Gazi makes the cut

SPORTS REPORTER

Off-spinner Shohag Gazi, who has impressed in the ongoing Test series between Bangladesh and West Indies, has been rewarded with a berth in Bangladesh's 14-man squad for the first two one day internationals, which was announced yesterday.

Gazi has picked up eleven wickets in the series so far and has been Mushfiqur Rahim's go-to bowler.

Apart from Gazi, Rubel Hossain and Naeem Islam are the other two players who have returned to the side after missing out during the Asia Cup, which took place in March this year.

Rubel, who returned from a shoulder injury, impressed the selectors with his effort in the Test series. Naeem's inclusion in the squad was propelled by his maiden Test century in the second innings of the first Test match.

Young Abul Hasan, who became only the fourth person in the history of Test cricket to score a century while batting at number ten, was also named in the squad. The young pacer made a late entry into the Asia Cup squad in March, following Shafiul Islam's injury. He, however, didn't make it to the playing eleven.

Imrul Kayes, Elias Sunny, Nazmul Hossain, Shahadat Hossain and Nazimuddin, who were a part of the ODI squad during the Asia Cup were dropped by the selectors.

Bowlers on top

SPORTS REPORTER

A brisk beginning to the fifth round of the National Cricket League saw three teams fold out early in their respective matches yesterday. Chittagong, at their home ground—MA Aziz Stadium—were bowled out for 138 by Dhaka as spinners Mosharraf Hossain and Nazmul Apu ran through the hosts' batting order.

The game at the Shahid Kamruzzaman Stadium in Rajshahi saw Barisal get bundled out for 245 by Rangpur. Meanwhile league leaders Khulna maintained their good run as they bowled Sylhet out for 244 at the Cricket Garden in Rangpur. Rajshahi were the only team batting first, to not get bowled out, as they finished their first day at 235 for 6 at the Sher-e-Bangla National Cricket Stadium in Mirpur, against Dhaka Metro.
