PADMA BRIDGE PROJECT Financiers target tight control

Sit in Manila today for action plan; WB sends ACC more evidence of graft

REJAUL KARIM BYRON

The co-financiers of Padma bridge project would sit today at the Asian Development Bank (ADB) headquarters to decide on a new implementation strategy for having more control over procurement, said finance ministry officials.

Officials of the World Bank, ADB and Japan International Cooperation Agency (Jica) are expected to attend the meeting in Manila. Of them, country directors of the WB and ADB offices in Dhaka have already reached the Philippines, said the officials.

The meeting will decide whether the donors will have full control over the procurement or the project will be implemented under other means to ensure quality work and prevent corruption in the project.

US planned to bomb Moon!

Testimony of torture

War crimes witness testifies against Mojaheed, Azad

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Testifying in two cases yesterday, a freedom fighter said he was tortured by war-crimes accused Azad and others after Jamaat leader Mojaheed held a meeting with a Pakistani army officer and Razakars at Faridpur Circuit House.

Ranjit Kumar Nath alias Babu Nath told the International Crimes Tribunal-2 that expelled Jamaat member Abul Kalam Azad and his cohorts tortured him inhumanly after Ali Ahsan Mohammad Mojaheed signalled them to take him away from the circuit house.

Ranjit, the seventh prosecution witness in the case against Mojaheed, gave a heart wrenching testimony on how he was picked up by Azad and his associates, confined to a house in Bihari colony, tortured and how he escaped.

Ranjit also gave his testimony as the fifth prosecution witness in the case against Azad alias Bachchu Razakar before the same tribunal yesterday.

In the case against Azad, Ranjit said Jamaat Secretary General Mojaheed, Bachchu Razakar and some Biharies (Urdu speaking people) welcomed the Pakistani army when they arrived in Faridpur on April 21, 1971.

They took the army to Prabhu Jagatbandhu Ashram (temple).

"The Pakistani army men shot eight priests dead while Mojaheed and Bachchu were with them," said the 62-year-old witness from Faridpur.
