No immediate plan to ban Jamaat politics

Says Syed Ashraf

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Sylhet

The government has no intention to ban politics of Jamaat-e-Islami right now, said Local Government and Rural Development & Co-operatives Minister Syed Ashraful Islam yesterday.

However, there would be no concession for those who committed crimes against humanity during the 1971 Liberation War, he added.

Ashraful, also the Awami League (AL) general secretary, was talking to journalists at Biswanath upazila headquarters in Sylhet after laying the foundation stone of the upazila auditorium.

He said the government agencies were sincerely trying to find the whereabouts of former lawmaker and BNP Organising Secretary (Sylhet Division) M Ilias Ali and, once known, his family would be immediately informed.

Biswanath is part of the constituency (Sylhet-2) of Ilias. He and his driver went missing on April 17 and police found his abandoned car in the capital's Banani the next morning.

Elected representatives of the upazila presented a memorandum to Ashraful through the Upazila Nirbahi Officer Sonamoni Chakma, seeking assistance in finding Ilias.

The signatories to the memorandum include Biswanath Upazila Parishad Vice-Chairman and the upazila BNP General Secretary Gous Khan, Vice-Chairperson Shova Akhtar Angura and Biswanath Union Parishad Chairman and the upazila BNP President Jalal Uddin.

Earlier addressing a views-exchange meeting of the district and city AL at Circuit House, Ashraful said there was no alternative to an election in forming a government in a democratic system.

AL, having been long in the politics for the people, will come to power again through people's mandate. "We rely on the masses. We do not have the strength of arms or money," he said.

Despite the controversies, there will no doubt be a free and fair election in Bangladesh and the opposition will hopefully get their good senses and join it, he said.

Sylhet city Mayor and city AL President Badar Uddin Ahmed Kamran was also present.

MKA lambasts Khaleda for road block call

A CORRESPONDENT, Chandpur

Home Minister Muhiuddin Khan Alamgir yesterday lambasted BNP Chairperson Khaleda Zia for announcing on Wednesday the December 9 countrywide road blockade over the demand for restoration of the caretaker government system.

"Roads belong to the country's people. It is illegal to block roads. Any particular person or group cannot go against the law. If Khaleda Zia blocks people's roads in the name of their wellbeing, I would say she is doing wrong," he said.

Muhiuddin was talking to journalists after addressing a meeting in Shankarpur Adarsha Dakhil Madrasa in Chandpur.

He said, "We, on behalf of the government, will try to make her take the right decisions. The government will take necessary action if Khaleda blocks people's thoroughfares stating the excuse of working for people's benefit."

The court passed the order after hearing a petition filed by Tarique's lawyer Mahbub Uddin Khokon on November 28 seeking extension of the HC's earlier order of bail and stay.

On April 1, 2007, Mir Zahir Hossain, managing director of Mir Akhter Hossain Ltd, filed a case with Dhamondi Police Station accusing Tarique's business partner Gias Uddin Al Mamun and six others of extorting Tk 53 lakh from him in 2004.

Tarique was shown arrested in the case on April 23, 2007.

In August, 2008, the HC granted bail to Tarique in this case and stayed the proceedings of the case, and later on extended the order of bail and stay at different times.

Tarique is accused in 14 criminal cases and on bail in 10 cases.

Don't attack police like cowards

Matia tells Jamaat-Shibir

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Agriculture Minister Matia Chowdhury yesterday asked Bangladesh Jamaat-e-Islami and Islami Chhatra Shibir to openly announce the date and time of encounters instead of attacking law enforcers like cowards.

"Why you cowards [Jamaat-Shibir] make freak attacks on police? Give a date and let's know the place, then come," she told a rally, organised by the Awami Jubo League at Shaheed Noor Hossain Square in the capital.

She said, "Let the country's people see where you have stashed your arms and grenades."

Criticising the violence of Jamaat-Shibir, Matia, also an Awami League presidium member, said her party's youth wing, the Jubo League, was more than enough to face off the Jamaat-Shibir attacks along with people.

Referring to the opposition leader's announcement of countrywide road blockade on December 9, the AL leader said Khaleda Zia announced the programme only to boost up the morale of the Pakistani army in the month of victory.

About Khaleda's claim that the present government has been trying to declare a state of emergency in the country, Matia said those having public support and records of democratic politics did not go for emergency.

The minister also criticised Khaleda for claiming her two sons to be honest. Matia said if she [Khaleda] had the courage, she should tell her sons - Tarique Rahman and Arafat Rahman Koko - to go to the USA where they would face imprisonment.

PARAG MONDOL ABDUCTION CASE Ameer on 10-day remand

COURT CORRESPONDENT

Ameer Hossain, mastermind of Parag Mondol abduction, was placed on a 10-day remand by a Dhaka court yesterday.

Senior Judicial Magistrate Md Tajul Islam passed the order when Monirul Islam, officer-in-charge (Investigation) of South Keraniganj Police Station and investigation officer of the abduction case, produced Ameer before the court and sought a 12-day remand for him.

Monirul Islam stated in the remand prayer that Ameer should be taken in remand to get information from him about other culprits involved in the incident and find them.

Weapons were recovered from Ameer's possession and he should be interrogated to find out about the suppliers of those arms, he added.

Ameer was arrested on November 24 in Tongi after a 'shootout' with the Detective Branch of Police when he sustained severe injuries. He was rushed to Dhaka Medical College Hospital.

With Ameer's arrest, the number of people detained in connection with the abduction stands at 11.

Parag Mondol, a six-year-old student of Heed International School, was abducted by criminals at Shuvadda Paschim Para in Keraniganj on November 11.

Parag was found after three days of his abduction at Atibazar in the locality.

Earlier on November 26, Al-Amin, an accused in the same abduction case, confessed before a judicial magistrate that he was driving the motorbike used to abduct Parag.

Ensure security of defence lawyer's office tribunal led by Justice ATM Fazle Kabir with members Justice Obaidul Hassan and Judge M Shahinur Islam issued the directive following a petition of the defence.

On October 10, Abdur Razzaq, chief of the defence, told the tribunal some plain-clothes law enforcers had entered the chamber of Tajul Islam, a senior member of his team, at Paltan and interrogated lawyers present there the previous day.

As the tribunal asked the defence to file a written petition, they placed it on October 14 seeking the court's intervention to "stop harassment by the law enforcers".

Following the petition, the tribunal directed the Dhaka Metropolitan Police and Paltan Model Police Station to submit reports in this regard.

Justice Kabir yesterday said they had received two separate reports from the DMP and Paltan police that said no members of law-enforcement agency went to Tajul's chamber that day.

The tribunal, however, directed the police to remain alert about the lawyer's chamber to avoid any untoward incident.

Yesterday was fixed for recording testimony of the fourth defence witness against Jamaat leader Abdul Quader Mollah, but Tajul Islam said they could not produce the witness due to illness of a relative of the witness.

"We have asked you [the defence] to produce two defence witnesses today [Thursday]," said Justice Kabir.

"Couldn't you produce anyone?" asked Justice Hassan.

Tajul said they were facing different problems, as their witnesses were being intimidated.

"We have asked you to give us a list of your witnesses so that we could ensure their security. But you did not submit the list and now you did not produce your witnesses. What can we do now?" said Justice Hassan.

"We will produce witness on Sunday," said Tajul.

The tribunal fixed Sunday for the case proceeding.

KAMARUZZAMAN AND MOJAHEED'S CASES

The tribunal completed recording cross-examination of Majibar Rahman Khan Panu, 14th prosecution witness in the case against Jamaat leader

Muhammad Kamaluzzaman and adjourned the proceeding until December 4.

The tribunal also completed recording cross-examination of Ranjit Kumar Nath alias Babu Nath, seventh prosecution witness in the case against Jamaat Secretary General Ali Ahsan Mojaheed before adjourning the case proceeding until December 5.

SAYEDEE'S CASE

War crimes accused Jamaat leaders' counsels yesterday questioned the credibility of the investigation officer (IO) of the case against Jamaat leader Delwar Hossain Sayeedee.

Defence counsel Abdur Razzaq said if IO Assistant Superintendent of Police (ASP) Helal Uddin was proved as unreliable, statements of the 15 "absentee witnesses" which were accepted as testimony by the tribunal under section 19 (2) of the International Crimes [Tribunals] Act, 1973 could also be proved fake.

The prosecution was supposed to have 68 witnesses testified against Sayeedee. However, on March 20, they said they could not produce 46 witnesses as the witnesses were either very sick or missing. The prosecution asked the court to accept the witnesses' statements to the IO as depositions before the court.

The tribunal on March 29 accepted the statements of 15 prosecution witnesses, out of the 46, as evidence against Sayeedee. The proceeding of the case was adjourned until Sunday.

The proceeding of the case was adjourned until Sunday.
