Saluting Timeless Ideas of Construction

12 dynasties took over 2000 years to build the 8851-km long Great Wall of China. We wonder at the brilliance of construction that has made the Great Wall of China simply timeless.

Clashes in Egypt on the eve of referendum

AFP, Cairo

Stone-throwing clashes broke out in the Egyptian city of Alexandria between Islamists and opposition protesters yesterday, on the eve of a highly charged referendum on a new constitution, witnesses and state media said.

Fifteen people were wounded, according to medics, and several cars set on fire in the violence in the Mediterranean city, Egypt's second largest.

State television showed at least one protester brandishing a sword.

Riot police quickly moved to separate the protesters, who clashed after a cleric urged worshippers to vote yes for the constitution.

Tensions are high over the staggered referendum,

Islamist parties threaten to call hartal for Dec 20

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Twelve like-minded Islamist parties yesterday threatened to enforce a hartal on Thursday if the left-leaning political parties do not withdraw their Tuesday's hartal.

The Communist Party of Bangladesh (CPB) and Bangladesh Samajtantrik Dal (BSD) on December 7 called a countrywide daylong hartal for December 18 [Tuesday] demanding ban on communal politics including that of the Jamaat-e-Islami, and quick disposal of the war crimes trials.

While paying tribute to the martyred intellectuals at Rayerbazar mass grave yesterday, the leaders of these two parties hoped that people would strongly respond against Jamaat-e-Islami by

OPERATION CLEAN HEART Govt yet to reply to HC ruling

ASHUTOSH SARKAR

Four months have elapsed and the government is yet to respond to the High Court's rule over legitimising the controversial criminal hunt called Operation Clean Heart.

During a hearing on a public interest litigation, the HC on July 29 issued the rule asking the government to explain within six weeks why the Joint Drive Indemnity Act, 2003 should not be declared unconstitutional.

The court also asked the authorities concerned to explain why they should not be directed to create a fund of Tk 100 crore to compensate victims of the operation.

CONTRIBUTIONS TO LIBERATION WAR Nation to honour 65 more foreign friends

DIPLOMATIC CORRESPONDENT

Bangladesh will present awards to 65 more foreign friends this morning for their outstanding contributions to the country's Liberation War 41 years ago.

Foreign friends' support came when Bangalees stood up against the genocide and atrocities by the Pakistan occupation forces and their collaborators.

They contributed to the eventful emergence of sovereign Bangladesh through a nine-month war.

This will be the fourth time of awarding foreign friends since the government first conferred "Bangladesh Freedom Honour" posthumously on late Indian premier Indira Gandhi.

Her daughter-in-law and Congress President Sonia Gandhi received the honour on her behalf on July 25 last year.

President Zillur Rahman and Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina will ceremonially hand over "Muktijuddho Moitri Sammanana" to the 65 recipients at Bangabandhu International Conference Centre in the capital today.

Disclose assets Chinese intellectuals urge top leaders of Chinese Communist Party

REUTERS, Beijing

About 65 Chinese academics, lawyers and human rights activists have signed an open letter demanding that top members of the ruling Communist Party reveal their financial assets, saying it is the most fundamental way to solve corruption.

The letter will be presented to parliament when it meets for its annual session in March, according to the Communist Party-run Global Times newspaper.

Petitions to China's parliament are usually ignored. But the public denunciation of corruption underscores the top challenge facing new party chief Xi Jinping, who has himself warned that if corruption were allowed to run wild, the party risked major unrest and the collapse of its rule.

The letter calls on the 205 newly named members of the party's Central Committee to divulge their personal wealth. The call follows a stream of scandals involving
