Victory Day celebrated at home, abroad

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

With a call to expedite the war crimes trial, different political and socio-cultural organisations and Bangladesh missions abroad observed the nation's 41st anniversary of victory yesterday amid much enthusiasm and gaiety.

The embassies and high commissions began the day with the hoisting of the Bangladesh flag followed by discussions, cultural programmes and special prayers seeking salvation of the souls of Liberation War martyrs, says press releases.

Messages of the day from the president, prime minister and foreign minister were read out before the Bangladeshi expatriate community and high commission members.

The Bangladesh High Commission in Brunei Darussalam held the programmes involving the Bangladeshi community living there while speakers at a discussion in the Bangladesh embassy in Ankara, Turkey called upon the government to expedite the trial.

The organisations in Dhaka placed wreaths at the National Memorial in Savar and held discussions, rallies, photo exhibitions and cultural programmes and screened films on the Liberation War, says press releases.

The organisations are Workers' Party of Bangladesh, Bangladesh Krishak Sramik Awami League, Revolutionary Workers Party of Bangladesh, Bangladesh Awami Svechhasebok League, Bangladesh Jalaly Party, Bangladesh Jubo Moitree, Bangabandhu Society and Bangabandhu Gobeshona Parishad.

Dhaka University's disaster management department organised a photo exhibition, "War is a man-made disaster" in Teacher-Student Centre.

Hasina, Khaleda pay tribute to Liberation War martyrs

UNB, Dhaka

Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina and Leader of the Opposition Khaleda Zia yesterday paid glowing tributes to the martyrs of the War of Liberation by placing wreaths at the National Memorial at Savar marking the country's 42nd great Victory Day.

The prime minister placed a wreath at the memorial at 6:34am.

She stood there for some time in silence as the last post was played on bugle showing respect to the land's great heroes.

Cabinet members, members of the parliament, chiefs of three services, and foreign diplomats, among others, were present.

Hasina also laid wreath at the portrait of Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman at the Bangabandhu Memorial Museum in the capital's Dhanmondi area around 7:50am.

Later, she stood-in for President Zillur Rahman during the Victory Day parade and took salute from the armed forces at the National Parade Ground. Zillur Rahman could not attend the programme due to his ill health.

Meanwhile, BNP Chairperson Khaleda Zia along with her party leaders and activists placed wreaths at the National Memorial in Savar on the outskirts of the capital around 7:35am.

Later, she drove to the grave of BNP founder late president Ziaur Rahman in the capital's Sher-e-Bangla Nagar area.

Khaleda, flanked by the leaders and activists of BNP and its front and associate organisations, placed wreaths and offered fateha at Zia's grave around 9:00am.

BNP pledges to restore caretaker govt system

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Marking the country's Victory Day, the main opposition has pledged to strengthen democracy by restoring the non-party caretaker government system.

The country's democracy is at stake with law and order absent and the government is suppressing the opposition, senior BNP leader Tariqul Islam told journalists at the grave of late president Ziaur Rahman in the capital's Sher-e-Bangla Nagar yesterday.

BNP Chairperson Khaleda Zia along with party leaders and workers paid tribute to the party founder by placing wreath on his grave and offering fateha.

Tariqul also alleged that police barred Khaleda's motorcade for around 40 minutes in the morning while she was going to the National Memorial to pay homage to Liberation War martyrs.

Addressing a discussion at BNP's central office in Nayapaltan, Tariqul said, "The prime minister gifted a dead body to the nation in the month of victory by killing Bishwajit Das. Not only in Dhaka, Awami League killed many across the country this month."

Jasas, BNP's cultural wing, organised the discussion marking the Victory Day.

Khulna was freed on this day

A CORRESPONDENT, Khulna

December 17 is a red letter day for Khulna dwellers as on this day in 1971 the Pakistani occupation forces surrendered to the allied forces of Bangladeshi freedom fighters and Indian forces in Khulna, a day after the rest of the country.

"News over the radio on December 16 that the Pakistani army had surrendered everywhere except Khulna made our blood boil. We were determined to free Khulna as soon as possible," said Sheikh Quamruzzaman Tuku, chief of Khulna unit Mujib Bahini.

Between December 11 and 16, freedom fighters had captured most of the camps of the Pakistani army and their local collaborators like the Razakars, Al-Badar and Al-Shams in the areas surrounding Khulna city.

The camps include Gallamari Radio Station, Khulna Lion's School, PMG Colony, Khulna Shipyard, Number 7 Jetty Ghat area, Tootpara and Boyra Fire Brigade Station, Wapda Building, Goalpara Power Plant at Khalishpur and some places of Goalkhali and Daulatpur area.

On December 17, the freedom fighters started entering Khulna city through different points including Rupsha Ghat area via Senerbazar-Razapur, Crescent Jute Mill area, Kulutia area, Khulna Lion's School area, Mongla area and Batiaghata area.

Two major battles were won on this day -- one in Shromony area and another in Khulna Shipyard area.

The Pakistani forces were fighting for the last two days, armed with several regiments of artillery, infantry and armoured divisions, including six tanks, in Shromony area.

In the morning, the battle grew fierce, says freedom fighter SM Rezwan. The occupation forces used modern weapons, including anti-aircraft machine guns, mortars and rocket launchers.

Soon the Pakistani occupation forces were defeated. A total of 200 Pakistani soldiers surrendered with their weapons while their local collaborators fled.

The freedom fighters marched to Khulna Circuit House grounds where the flag of an independent Bangladesh was raised around 10:30am by Major (Retd) Joynul Abedin and Gazi Rahmatullah Dadu.

Another flag was hoisted in Shaheed Hadis Park by freedom fighters.

Sector 9 Commander MA Jalil handed over several hundred prisoners of war, including their commander Brig Hayat Ali Khan, to General Dalbir Singh, chief of the Indian forces in the western region, in Khalishpur.

Hundreds of people of the newborn Bangladesh rushed out on to the streets at the end of the nine-month-long Liberation War chanting one slogan, "Joy Bangla".
