FULL VERDICT ON 7TH AMENDMENT RELEASED

Martial law stays illegal for good

SC terms declaration of it an act of high treason

JULFIKAR ALI MANIK and ASHUTOSH SARKAR

Declaration of martial law is an act of high treason against the state, says the Supreme Court in its full verdict in the historic case on the seventh amendment to the constitution.

The SC has recently released the 125-page full text of its judgment, 19 months after pronouncing the verdict in the case on May 15 last year.

"Any person who declares Martial Law and ousts an elected government or attempts to do so, he and his associates would be liable for high treason against the Republic of Bangladesh," says the judgment.

Terming it a clear violation of the constitution, the apex court said, "No condonation is allowed for those who violate the Constitution which is the worst kind of offence that may be committed against the Republic and its people."

The SC said, "There is no such law as Martial Law or no such authority as Martial Law Authority in Bangladesh."

"Constitution cannot be violated on

Violence in 4 dists

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

City commuters suffered from gruelling traffic in the pre-hartal evening yesterday as 12 Islamist and likeminded parties are set to enforce a countrywide dawn-to-dusk strike today.

In Dhaka, the shut-down will remain in force till 2:00pm, while the Rangpur City Corporation area has been kept outside the purview of hartal for the polls to RCC, Zafrullah Khan, member secretary of the 12-party combine, told The Daily Star last night.

$14.059b siphoned off

Reveals Global Financial Integrity report

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

A total of $14.059 billion had been siphoned off from Bangladesh in 10 years since 2001 through trade mis-invoicing, corruption, bribery and tax evasion, said a report of Washington-based Global Financial

Integrity (GFI).

Of the money, $10.597 billion [almost 75 percent] were transferred through under- and over-invoicing of exported and imported goods, said the report styled Illicit Financial Flows from Developing Countries: 2001-

2010, released on December 17.

Bangladesh has been ranked 44th out of 143 developing countries from where money is transferred illegally to developed economies. In South
