Yunus urges Indian youth to create own politics

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Nobel Laureate Prof Muhammad Yunus has urged the Indian youth to create their own politics with a new vision for the new generation to face the future challenges.

"Don't remain under the spell of traditional politics, look to the future, the world is changing very fast, the youth have to redesign the institutions to face the new challenges," he said.

Yunus said the Indian youth should not think only about India, but all the youth of the Saarc countries.

The microcredit pioneer spoke in the "3rd Indian Student Parliament" event as the main speaker on Saturday in Indian state of Maharashtra, said a statement of Yunus Centre in Dhaka yesterday.

The event was jointly organised by the Maharashtra Institute of Technology (MIT) School of Government and the Education Ministry of India.

The founder of Grameen Bank addressed the "Indian Student Parliament-Inspiring Youth for Strengthening Democracy" conclave with a participation of over 10,000 selected from among the elected student union leaders from all the states of India in the session on "Poverty: A Great Terror?"

He urged the student parliament organisers to invite students of the Saarc countries from next year and said this interaction would help to solve many problems of the Saarc countries and the world.

The banker to the poor said poverty is not created by the poor. "It is not their fault. Poverty is created by the system, the policies and certain institutions."

Fourteen national presidents of students' wings of Indian main stream political parties like Congress, BJP, CPM, Jatio Somabadi Party and VHP were awarded for their contribution in youth leadership. They received crests from Prof Yunus.

Dr Mohan Dharia, a renowned Indian freedom fighter, thanked Prof Yunus for his inspiring speech and urged the students to follow his advices.

Yunus also went to Nagpur to speak at the TECHLONS 2013 event and addressed a gathering of over 10,000 student microfinance borrowers there.

He said the youth should not look for jobs only. "They should have a vision to create jobs for others."

He also said solving problem through "social business" should be the aim of the youth.

CASES FOR OBSTRUCTING COPS 600 opposition men get bail

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

A High Court bench yesterday granted anticipatory bail to around 600 leaders and activists of BNP and its front organisations in 10 cases filed on different charges.

The cases were filed following the opposition's countrywide blockade on December 9 last year and its hartal on January 6.

Zainul Abedin, principal counsel for the accused petitioners, told The Daily Star the police filed the cases on charges of torching cars and preventing police from discharging duties on last December 9 and January 6.

He said that his clients have filed the bail petitions with the HC on different days of last week.

The accused, who received bail, include BNP's central committee member Lutfar Rahman, Jatiyatabadi Jubo Dal President Syed Moazzem Hossain Alal, Swechchhasebak Dal President Habib-un Nabi Khan Sohel and Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) President Abdul Qader Bhuiyan Jewel.

The HC bench of Justice M Enayetur Rahim and Justice Md Akram Hossain Chowdhury passed the orders of anticipatory bail after hearing 57 petitions filed by the leaders and activists seeking anticipatory bail in the cases.

The bench also directed the petitioners to surrender before the lower courts concerned in connection with the cases by February 12.

The leaders and workers appeared before the HC bench yesterday seeking bail in the cases.

Rokia Afzal Rahman, chairperson of Mediaworld Ltd, and Mahfuz Anam, editor and publisher of The Daily Star, cut a cake in The Daily Star Centre in the capital celebrating the newspaper's 22nd anniversary.

Jamaat's hartal in Rajshahi today

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Rajshahi

Jamaat-e-Islami called an eight-hour hartal for today in Rajshahi division, demanding immediate release of all detained leaders of the party including its assistant secretary general Mujibur Rahman.

The hartal will be enforced from 6:00am to 2:00pm, announced Rofikul Islam, team member of the divisional committee of Jamaat, yesterday in a press release.

In the press release, Jamaat demanded immediate release of Mujibur Rahman and other leaders who are detained for their alleged crimes against humanity committed during the 1971 Liberation War.

Rapid Action Battalion (Rab) arrested Mujibur from Zero Point area in Khulna city on Saturday for his alleged involvement with the attack on police in Rajshahi during the BNP-led opposition's countrywide hartal on January 6.

The release claimed that Rab arrested Mujibur, also president of Shramik Kolyan Federation, without any charges against him and later implicated him in a "false" case.

Earlier, Jamaat observed half-day hartal in the division in last December protesting the arrest of the party's publicity secretary Tasnim Alam.

Rajshahi Metropolitan Police Commissioner SM Moniruzzaman said police forces were already deployed at various points of the city to prevent any untoward incidents.
